INVESTIGATE BELL CONTRACTS

TELEPHONE HEARING ON

State Railway Commission Inquires Into Northwestern Bell's Business Relations With Parent Corporation and Western Electric.

NEW YORK MEN ARE HERE TO TESTIFY

Nebraska Cities Which Protested Against Rate Increase Asked for by Phone Company Not Represented When Probe is Commenced.

Most of the cities in Nebraska which filed protests with the state railway commission last December against an increase of rates asked by the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co., were unrepresented Monday forenoon at the hearing before the body to inquire into that corporation's contracts and business relations with the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., parent Bell corporation, and the Western Electric Co., its manufacturing subsidiary.

W. H. Young for the Fremont Chamber of Commerce was about the only pro bono publico present from the state at large. W. C. Lambert, corporation counsel for the city of Omaha, C. E. Childe of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. Kuhn of the Omaha Grain exchange were on hand for their respective interests, the largest increases proposed by the company being in Omaha.

The hearing opened with an explanatory statement by E. M. Morsman, Nebraska counsel for the Northwestern Bell. Appearing with him in the case were General Counsel F. E. Randall, Attorney A. J. McLean, Vice President G. H. Pratt, General Commercial Superintendent Lloyd Wilson, and other company officials.

What Contracts Cover.

Relative to the agreement between the Northwestern Bell and the A. T. under which the former pays the latter 4 1-2 per cent of its gross earnings in Nebraska and four other states, Mr. Morsman said that in return the Northwestern gets these things:

1. Use of telephone instruments, which belong to the parent company, on a rental basis.
2. Right to use all A. T. & T. patented apparatus and devices.
3. Full use of all standard methods and apparatus perfected by A. T. & T. through its organized research and experimental work.
4. Freedom from royalties, damages and litigation over patents.
5. Benefit of parent company's organization in prosecuting research.
6. Advice and assistance of all experts, engineers, legal advisers and other specialists employed by A. T. & T.
7. Similar advice and assistance of financial experts.
8. Support, plans and advice in carrying on welfare work, compensation, sick and death benefits.
9. Right to extend all the foregoing privileges and benefits to all connecting companies.

As to the Western Electric Mr. Morsman said, it acts as purchasing agent for the Northwestern Bell and the latter buys its manufactured products at lower prices than they are sold to anyone outside the Bell system. He claimed that the branch Bell companies throughout the country could not buy on the open market as advantageously as they can through the Western Electric.

New Yorkers Here to Testify.

F. F. Rhodes of New York, outside plant development engineer for the A. T. & T., was the first witness. His testimony dealt with the contract whereby the company collects 4 1-2 per cent of the gross earnings of the Northwestern Bell.

E. V. Cox, supply contract auditor for the A. T. & T., was to be examined regarding the Western Electric contract with the Northwestern Bell.

Two other New York men here for the inquiry were S. H. Brown, general traffic problems engineer, and R. B. Hill, assistant to Engineer Rhodes.

The commission was informed by Attorney Morsman that the A. T. & T. owns all the stock of the Northwestern Bell and most of the Western Electric stock. It also con-

"Lie Detector" Clears Name of Of Young Rancher

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—The scientific "lie detector" has cleared the name of Charles Wesley Reed, 24, Marysville rancher. Reed was accused of having stolen a blank check from his father's safe and forged it. Handwriting experts convinced his wealthy father and his son was driven from home. David W. Clark was later suspected and although he denied having forged the check, the "lie detector" in the hands of August Vollmer, criminologist revealed his guilt. Handwriting experts confirmed the "lie detector." Reed and his father have been reconciled.

San Francisco's Oldest Woman is Dead; Almost 102

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Funeral arrangements, which she dictated a week before her death, were being made today for Mrs. Mary Martin Davis, oldest resident of San Francisco, who died at the age of 101 years and nine months. She came to California round the horn in a sailing ship.

"Avoid woolen underwear. Keep away from steam heat and do not indulge in too great activities," she advised on her hundredth birthday.

RESUME INQUIRY

Road Investigators Meet With Clay County Board Monday Afternoon—Trip of Inspection Over Muddy Highways.

CLAY CENTER, Neb., April 17. — The special commission authorized by the legislature to investigate the comparative cost of constructing and maintaining highways in Nebraska arrived here shortly after eleven o'clock this morning after a drive over muddy roads between here and Hastings, having driven out to the latter city Sunday afternoon. The drive but was over the highways but soft conditions interfered with progress this morning.

Governor McKelvie came out to Clay Center by train Sunday evening and met the party here this morning. Auditor Marsh is not yet with the committee, but may join it later. H. A. Bishop, federal road engineer, who has testified before the commission, is accompanying it. A part of the trip from Hastings to Clay Center was made over the federal highway and a part over a state road. Representative Epperson, who went from his home to Hastings Sunday night, drove out with the party this morning.

The hearing here began before noon, as members of the county board were anxious to get away for the purpose of attending the funeral of a former member.

NORMALS FEEL LAW

Difficulty in Getting Alcohol for School Laboratories Leads to Request to Revenue Department for Necessary Permits.

Because of difficulties which state normal schools have encountered in getting alcohol for their laboratories, the state normal board adopted a resolution Monday morning formally requesting the internal revenue authorities to issue the necessary permits.

President U. S. Conn of the Wayne normal reported that his institution is now using up the last of the alcohol it had on hand when prohibition became effective, five years ago, and that the federal officials were very strict in giving out permits.

A similar experience was narrated by President R. I. Elliott of Chadron. It took his school six months to get five gallons of alcohol, and then it was necessary to send in a copy of H. E. Reische's official commission as a member of the normal board before a permit could be obtained.

Among the bills allowed Monday was one for $15,000 to the contractors who recently completed the remodeling of a gymnasium building at Peru, the total cost being $35,000.

Prof. Leon F. Berry, recently of LaCrosse, Wis., was elected teacher of public school music and piano in the Wayne normal at $175 per month. Miss Margaret Schenel, a University of Nebraska graduate, was elected to head the department of foreign languages there at $225 a month.

For the summer school at Wayne, Prof. Clarence Linton of Columbia university was employed at $275 a month and Miss Laura S. Price of Minneapolis at $200 a month, both in the department of education.

Janitors at the Wayne school are to have their pay slightly reduced, in accordance with action taken by the board.

It was voted to hold the next meeting in Lincoln on June 12. A committee will visit the Chadron normal school in the meantime.

Importers Want Losses Adjusted

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Sugar importers who acted as government agents for importation of sugar from the Argentine to relieve the 1920 shortage in the United States today asked the house agriculture committee to sanction a resolution to direct the president to order the sugar equalizing board to adjust their losses. The committee voted seven to four to compel the board to show its records of dealings with importers for committee investiga-

COUNCIL DELAYS ACTION ON VOTE

Bethany Citizen Asks That Suburb Be Made Part of Lincoln.

Old Ordinances Governing Rock Island Crossings Are Repealed.

Members of the city council are mum on the subject of annexing Bethany. Several days ago, City Clerk Theo. Berg received an official communication from the clerk of the town board of Bethany, informing Lincoln city council that at a recent election the vote had been 230 in favor of annexation and 150 opposed to it. The same day, H. A. Lemon, a prominent Bethany citizen presented a letter to the city council, urging that the village of Bethany be annexed to Lincoln without further delay.

Both communications were ordered placed on file at council meeting Monday afternoon. It is plain that some members of the council did not anticipate being called upon to annex Bethany without getting University Place with it.

Commissioner C. W. Bryan was expected to recommend to the council that the request of Field, Ricketts and Ricketts, attorneys, for a list of the names of municipal coal yard patrons be refused. Such a request was received ten days ago and referred to Mr. Bryan by the city council last Monday. It is understood that if Mr. Bryan objects to making public the names of municipal coal yard patrons, the city attorney will be asked for an opinion as to whether Mr. Bryan can be forced to make them public.

Tells About Whitelining

Mr. Bryan was also expected to explain to the council his action in whitelining the curb and setting aside parking spaces before the council had passed a resolution authorizing it. The matter had been discussed in council meetings several times and a partial agreement as to automobile parking restrictions had been reached. Mr. Bryan promised to prepare a resolution authorizing him to have the work done. A few days later a gang of men with paint and brushes appeared on the streets and began the work of marking the curbs and parking stalls.

Mr. Bryan introduced four ordinances, prepared by the city legal department, all repealing former ordinances or parts of ordinances governing Rock Island crossings, the speed of trains within the city limits. City Attorney Peterson has recommended one general ordinance, so liberal that it can be changed by the city council by resolution whenever that body sees fit, without the formality of amending the ordinance.

Applications by the Yellow Cab company for drivers' licenses for two additional taxicabs were approved.

An application from the Hewitt Tire company for a permit to install a gasoline tank and pump in its building at 148 North Fourteenth street was referred to John Wright, commissioner of public safety. A similar application from Thomas P. Fry for a permit to build a gasoline filling station at the northeast corner of Sixteenth and N streets, and one from the Lincoln Auto and Tractor school for a permit to install a gasoline pump in its building at Twenty-fourth and O streets, were also referred to Mr. Wright.

The council passed a resolution authorizing the repaving of R street between Seventeenth and Twentieth streets. An ordinance creating sewer district No. 231, bounded by J, N, First and Second streets, was read the second time.

The council approved two contracts with the Abel Construction company, one for paving Whittier street between Holdredge and Potter streets, $4,894.87, and the other for paving Euclid avenue between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, $3,176.25.

Joffre Making Long Tour to Promote Peace

Dr. B. F. Bailey, president of the Lincoln chamber of commerce, gave out the following message Monday regarding Marshal Joffre:

"It will be of public interest to know that Marshal Joffre was persuaded to make this long trip in the sole interest of promoting the peace of the nations realizing from the arguments that were presented to him that his influence would be much greater as a military man than it would be if he occupied any other position or followed any other calling, for no one could possibly accuse him of being a pacifist except from principle.

"It has been a great strain upon the Marshal in his rather uncertain physical condition, but he has been very happy in the hope that through his trip there might come a clearer understanding and a more determined desire for peace among the nations of the world.

"Mr. Samuel Hill has been untiring in his labors and unlimited in his expenditures to aid this work."

Sebastiao Sampaio May Speak at the State University

Sebastiao Sampaio, distinguished Brazilian journalist who will speak at the annual dinner of the chamber of commerce on Thursday, April 20, may speak at the university. The chamber of commerce is arranging with the university for a special convocation on April 21.

JOFFRE FOUND HANDSHAKING IS A REAL SCIENCE

Suffering From a Sore Hand as Result of Enthusiastic Crowds.

Mayor Zehrung Introduced Marshal's Daughter to Her Own Dad.

"I want to thank every man, woman and child in Lincoln for the reception given Marshal Joffre Saturday." Mayor Zehrung said Monday, "It was wonderful; it could not have been finer."

The mayor said there had been some criticism of the marshal because he shook hands with only a few people. The fact was, the mayor said, Marshal Joffre has had to shake hands with so many people on his trip across the United States, and so many of them have been so enthusiastic about it, that the marshal's right hand is so tender that he can hardly touch anything with it.

Near the agricultural college, Marshal Joffre saw five little boys, 10 or 12 years old, dressed in overalls. He asked Major Grant, his interpreter, to bring them over to where he stood. He shook hands with each of the little boys and patted them on the head with a remark about their being "real Americans."

People who were at General Pershing's home Saturday afternoon had a good laugh at Mayor Zehrung's expense. Someone whispered to the mayor to introduce a young lady to Marshal Joffre. The mayor didn't know her but he looked around the room and saw only one young lady he was not acquainted with. Taking it for granted that she was the one the mayor gallantly proceeded to introduce her to Marshal Joffre. She was Miss Joffre, the marshal's daughter. The other young lady had left the room.

It was learned Sunday that Mrs. Joffre had planned to remain in their car at the Burlington station during the ceremonies in Lincoln, but decided at the last minute to go to the Pershing home and see Warren Pershing, General Pershing's son, in whom Mrs. Joffre took a great interest while he was in France.

A special committee called at the Joffre car in the Burlington yards on Saturday afternoon fifteen minutes after the general had returned to it, and found him in bed and sound asleep, completely worn out by the parade and the ceremonies in which he had taken a part.

STOCKHOLDERS IN HIGHWAY CONCERN

Dunlap Files Report On Western Good Roads Service Company.

Stock All Held by Nebraskans —Strader Largest Stockholder.

Names of about sixty Nebraska stockholders in the Western Good Roads Service Co. of Lincoln successor to the National Highway Signal association whose affairs were investigated by the legislature in 1921 in connection with state highway matters, have been reported to the state tax commissioner and A. J. Dunlap, secretary and general manager.

The list includes seventeen Lincoln people, four at University Place and forty or fifty others at Omaha, Peru, Hastings, Broken Bow, Newark and Wyoming.

The total stock holdings in this state are $67,500, par value. Under the heading of "Market value," Secretary Dunlap wrote: "Don't know." The company has a contract with the state highways bureau permitting it to place its signs in roads built with federal and state aid.

Ellis E. Good, state representative from Nemaha county, heads a list of nine stockholders there, mostly people at the Peru state normal school. He holds forty shares.

C. Petrus Peterson and R. W. Devoe are among the largest Lincoln stockholders, with 42½ and 87½ shares, respectively. Charles Strader of Lincoln owns 95 shares—more than anyone else in Nebraska. C. H. Roper of University Place is second with 87 shares.

W. L. Gasoin, deputy secretary of state, is in the Lincoln list as holding four shares of the stock.

Other Lincolnites holding stock in the company are: J. L. McMasters, 40 shares; W. L. Seidell, 30; A. J. Dunlap, 24; D. W. Hayes, 16; Herbert Brownell, 12; I. J. Devoe, 7, R. A. F. Manke, 6; George C. Mason, A. E. Hunter, and Edwin Curtis 5 each; D. S. Potter, 4; Dessie McMasters, 3.

University Place, in addition to C. H. Roper, has these share holders: S. M., 17; S. W. Cashner, 10; James B. Brown, 5.

The Peru list includes these names: E. E. Good, 40 shares; C. F. Beck, 10; William F. Schoenike, Nettie C. Ellis, Harold L. Chatelaine, Dora Krebs and Martha H. Johnson, 5 each; Esther A. Clark and Vera E. Chatelaine, 3 each.

NAMES A RECEIVER

District Judge Stewart Appoints Lincoln Trust Company to Take Over Affairs of the Farmers Investment Company.

HOLDS LINCH IS INDEBTED TO FIRM

Court Finds Action of Board of Directors in Approving Alleged Illegal Acts of President Was Fraud Upon Stockholders.

District Judge W. E. Stewart entered an order Monday morning appointing the Lincoln Trust company receiver of the Farmers Investment company of Lincoln. The judge found that the company is insolvent and without cash to pay its interest, taxes or current expenses.

Judge Stewart made the following entry:

"This cause having been heretofore tried and submitted the court finds in favor of the plaintiffs. That the defendant Warren J. Linch (president of the Farmers Investment company) promoted the defendant corporation in about October 1917 with a capital of about $300 and has throughout its career while the said Linch acted as its president, wrongfully and fraudulently conducted its affairs, dominated its management its board of directors and the meetings of its stockholders largely to his personal interest and that of his relatives to the detriment of and the great loss of the stockholders.

"The court finds that the actions of the board of directors in approving and satisfying the regular illegal and fraudulent acts of the said Linch, and in dismissing actions of the defendant company against him with prejudice to a new action was a violation of duty and a fraud upon the stockholders.

Linch's Indebtedness $20,000

"The court finds that said Linch is indebted to the said corporation in the sum of $20,000, and that the defendant Iva T. Linch is jointly indebted with him for $2,000 of said sum and for all monies and profits wrongfully and fraudulently obtained from said corporation.

"The court finds that the said assets of the said corporation consists wholly or substantially of second mortgages upon certain Colorado lands and of unproductive Colorado lands, all of which are encumbered by mortgages; that the said corporation has no cash on hand with which to pay its interest, taxes or current debts and expenses; that its expenses are now abou $900 a month.

"The court further finds that said corporation is insolvent and that the Lincoln Trust company should be and hereby is appointed receiver to take charge of all assests, property and effects of the said corporation, upon the giving bond in the sum of $20,000 and qualifying accordingly—"

Six stockholders of the Farmers Investment company brought the suit against the company and its officers. W. J. Linch, its presiden twascharged with receiving large amounts of the monies from the corporation for commission on the sale of the company's stock and various other items in connection with his official capacity. Iva T. Linch is Mr. Linch's wife. She was the company's bookkeeper. The company has more than 400 stockholders.

Admits Taking Company's Funds

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 17.—Roy O. Douglas, secretary and manager of the Jackson County Savings and Loan association of this city, was arrested today on charges of forgery, following his confession that he had taken nearly $500,00 0of the association's funds. The money, according to his admissions, was taken through fictitious deeds of trust.

Douglas invested the bulk of it, he asserted, in two motor car accessory companies.

The institution was under the charge of J. G. Hughes, state finance commissioner, today, who was making an investigation of the defalcation.

Stock Market in Sharp Downturn

NEW YORK, April 17.—The prolonged advance in the stock market was broken today by a sharp decline in a number of the favorite speculative stocks. Steels and oil shares led in the break which ran from one to four points.

Among the heaviest declues were four points in Gulf States Steel, three in Kelly-Springfield Tire and Mexican Petroleum, and one to two in Bethlehem Steel, United States Steel and Crucible Steel.

More Money for Two Departments

WASHINGTON, April 17. — Requests of Secretary Hughes and Attorney General Daugherty for more funds for expenses next year of the state and justice departments, respectively, were granted partly by the senate, appropriations today in reporting the annual supply bill for those departments. It carried $2,500,000 more than the $26,000,000 provided by the house.

MORNING ORDERS AN ACCOUNTING BY REV. GATES

Must Report to Blind and Helpless Widow on Sale of Proceeds.

Schuyler Pastor Both Legal and Spiritual Advisor to Mrs. Halley.

District Judge W. M. Morning handed down a decree Monday morning requiring Rev. George M. Gates, of Schuyler, to account to Mrs. Lovina Halley for $3,686 as executor, of the estate of the late William H. Halley, who died in 1914. The amount represents $3,100 and interest there on of the proceeds of the sale of the Halley's homestead to the University of Nebraska for campus extension purposes in 1915 for $4,500.

The evidence disclosed that Rev. Gates loaned $1,500 of the proceeds of the sale of the homestead to himself and $1,600 to his son. Rev. Gates' testified the negotiations in the sale of the land was as agent of the estate and not as executor and that the two loans were made with Mrs. Halley's knowledge and consent

Rev. Gates was formerly a resident of University Place. Besides the decree, Judge Morning issued a statement and findings in part as follows:

"The executor was the former pastor of the testator (Mr Halley) and surviving widow; he was also their legal advisor; he wrote the will which named him as executor. The widow came into court at this hearing, blind and crippled and in a wheel chair, so crippled that she could not take the witness stand nor lift her hand for the oath to be administered to her. Those matters, of course, should not operate on the mind of the court in making the decision other than determining whether or not the relations of the parties and the condition of the widow was such as to make her an easy victim of being overreached by the executor. I understand she was in this condition, or substantially the same condition at the time the estate was administered, and at the same time this money was received by Mr. Gates and distributed by him.

Made Loan to Himself.

"Under all circumstances it was easy for him to without saying very much in that direction to induce her to believe that it was his duty as executor to handle this money and to put it out on interest, and I am confident that she supposed that it was his duty to so receive it and invest it as in his judgment might seem best. He availed himself of her helpless condition and her confidence in him as her legal and spiritual advisor to induce her to permit him to loan $1,600 of this money to his son and $1,500 of it to himself, secured by mortgages on practically worthless land in northern Colorado which was already covered by mortgages greatly in excess of its full value. The mortgages were represented by him to be first mortgages on said land of sufficient value and abundant security for the money so loaned. This he knew, or should have known, was not the case. As if to make the loss all the more complete he has, pending the administration, taken the bankruptcy act, seeking to render himself immune from personal liability for such of his debts as would be affected by his discharge in bankruptcy. Whether his application for the money so received and loaned to himself and to his son from the proceeds of said homestead is one which would be affected by a discharge in bankruptcy is doubtful, but this blind and helpless widow should not be driven to the necessity of testing that question in the courts if there is any legal way to prevent it. Let him account for this money just as he received it as executor of the estate and let his bondsmen respond, since by signing his bond they placed him in a position to receive and misappropriate these funds. If the executor does not find means to settle this estate, including proper distribution of the proceeds of this real estate, certainly there may be found ample provision in our criminal laws or in the statuary provisions whereby the county court may punish him as for contempt which will spur him on to that high moral end. At least if this blind and helpless widow has to lose the proceeds of her homestead at the hands of her former pastor, legal advisor and trusted friend this court will not lend its aid to the consummation of that end unless directed to do so by a higher court. This decree will be entered directing the executor to account for the sale of the proceeds of the estate as executor and to settle the estate accordingly."

FILES FOR GOVERNOR

Dan B. Butler Files Acceptance of Voters From Lincoln—Mellor Out for Lieutenant Governor.

Dan B. Butler, Omaha city commissioner, completed his filing for governor on the democratic ticket, Monday morning, when his acceptance of the voters' petition from Lincoln naming him for that office was received by Secretary of State Amsberry. With it were a receipt for his filing fee, paid in Douglas county, and two more petitions from there, headed respectively by E. J. McArdle and Mrs. McArdle.

W. R. Mellor of Lincoln made a personal filing for lieutenant governor on the republican ticket. He is the third man to enter the race for that office, the others being George C. Snow of Chadron and Fred Johnson of Hastings. Mr. Mellor was secretary of the state board of agriculture for a number of years. He served in the last legislature as one of the Lancaster county house delegation.

A former brewer, John Gumb of Fremont, has filed for state senator in the Eighth district, comprising Dodge and Washington counties. He is a candidate in the democratic primaries.

George B. Hastings of Grant, leader of the movie censorship forces in the state senate a year ago, wants to be re-elected in the Twenty-ninth district, which embraces seven counties. His republican filing for renomination has been received by the secretary of state. J. Reid Green, censorship booster in the house, has also refiled as a republican in Lancaster county.

The secretary of state has republican senatorial filings in the Ninth district, consisting of four counties, from Swan Olson and Walter L. Sandquist, both of Walthill.

WHEAT TRADERS ARE UNCERTAIN

Monday's Market Opens at Lower to Higher Price Quotations.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Wheat opened 1-4c lower to 1-2c higher today at $1.43 to $1.43 1-2 for May delivery after an extraordinary jump of 9c a bushel on Saturday. Before the start much uncertainty had been expressed as to whether the violent upturn on Saturday was the beginning of a still greater rise in values or whether a reaction would take place.

The actual opening proved that an extreme opinion in either direction was wrong, for the variation from Saturday's close was at practically unchanged figures, and gave but little hint of additional severe changes in price.

Great interest, however, continued as to the possibility of a big shortage of wheat here to fill immense outstanding contracts for May delivery, the outstanding factor which led to the sudden ascent of prices on Saturday.

May Goes Higher.

Although the start of trading today was indecisive, dealers who had sold wheat of late on the theory that it would be obtainable in the future at lower prices, showed decided uneasiness. They quickly bid up the market to $1.45 for May against 1.42 1-4 to $1.43 at the finish Saturday. The market was so unsettled and nervous meanwhile that extreme difficulty was experienced by brokers in completing transactions.

Before the first half hour had ended, the upward tendency of the May delivery was communicated to other months, September in particular. September touched the highest price yet for 1922 crop.

SUFFERING INCREASES

Heavy Rains Driven by High Winds Sunday Increase Terrors Caused by Floods Waters in Many Parts of Illinois.

LEVEE BREAKS AND MORE LAND COVERED

People in Inundated Areas Work Frantically to Remove Belongings to Places of Safety on High Ground.

(Associated Press.)

BEARDSTOWN, Ill., April 17.—Flood waters rushing through a hole in Cole creek levee this morning had washed away five hundred feet of the Chicago Burlington & Quincy railroad and completely cut off Beardstown from surround territory.

Flood Suffering Increases.

(International News Service.)

PEORIA, Ill., April 17.—A lashing rainstorm, accompanied by a forty-mile gale, broke over the floodswept Illinois river valley district this morning and started streams on a fresh rampage. Summer cottages and manufacturing stablishments along the river were inundated. Cabin boats were tossed from their moorings into the high waters. Farm homes for miles around were partly submerged. Two hundred feet of the upper bridge at Peoria and the Rock Island tracks near Mossville were washed away.

Huge forces of relief workers labored energetically to alleviate the situation.

The river registered 24.7 feet at 10 a. m., having risen a foot overnight.

A turn for the worse in the situation disheartened inhabitants of the district who have suffered heavy losses. It was believed yesterday that the flood crest had been reached.

In East Peoria, where workmen are trying to save the levee by dumping baks of sand and rock ballast, practically every family has vacated their homes. They are living in tents provided by the state and in public buildings.

DEPOT, BEARDSTOWN, Ill., April 17.—Adding to the discomfort of refugees and endangering further property here, a heavy rain, blown by a stiff wind, was still falling today.

Under the lash of the high winds last night, the Cole creek levee broke, flooding ten thousand acres of wheatlands. The new danger today was a possible shutdown of the gas plant here. Workmen have been fighting the water ever since the first break in the levee but if the rain and wind continues the plant will be flooded.

Merchants toiled all Easter Sunday to save their stocks from ruin. Much of the stocks, however, were damaged by the waves, which were flung high and furious in last night's wind and rain storm.

Bakhmeteff Goes To Semenoff's Aid

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Within a few hours after the state department had confirmed his right to the title of the "Russian ambassador" today, Boris Bakhmeteff came to the aid of General Gregorie Semenoff, now in a New York jail, on civil charges, while efforts are being made to hold him for the murders of American soldiers.

"General Semenoff is not responsible for the deaths of American soldiers," Bakhmeteff said today. "In the chaotic conditions which prevailed in Siberia he could not prevent it."

KELLEY TO SPEAK.

Fred O Kelley, industrial secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and secretary of the welfare labor committee of the chamber of commerce left Monday for Wichita, Kas., where he will speak before the Kansas Manufacturers' association, in session April 18 and 19, on "Taking the Fatigue out of Manufacturing." He will also speak before the foremen's organization in Wichita.

FAVORS REPARATION.

Reparation of $1,100 to the Nebraska Material company for excessive switching charges on sand and gravel at Lincoln has been recommended by the examiners of the interstate commerce commission. This is the tentative report on the formal complaint brought by the Lincoln chamber of commerce. The interstate commerce commission has not yet passed upon the recommendation.

Unknown Man Damages City Adding Machine

City officials are trying to learn the identity of a man in military uniform who wrecked an adding machine in the city clerk's office Saturday afternoon. The city hall was closed, but the janitor, who was working in the building left the north door unlocked.

The janitor's story is that he was working in the city clerk's office when a stranger walked in and asked if he might use the telephone. The janitor told him he could. In some way the visitor upset the adding machine and, although the janitor shouted at him he fled downstairs and into the street without stopping to ascertain the extent of the damage he had done.

The adding machine was a new one, purchased only a few weeks ago. A repair man looked it over Monday morning and estimated the damage at "not less than $40 or $50."

OFFICIALS MUST KEEP THEIR PAY

Law Bars Men in Public Office from Refunding Part of Salary.

Candidate for Sheriff in Greeley Making Pre-Election Pledge.

The lawyers seem to have it fixed up in Nebraska so that if a candidate for office announces to the voters that he will not draw his full salary but will return part of it to the public treasury he is violating the law and could be prevented from taking office should he be elected.

This is the law as interpreted by Assistant Attorney General Dort, in reply to a query from County Attorney P. J. Barrett of Greeley county, who sent in part of an advertisement by one of the candidates for sheriff there, pledging himself to refund $350 a year of his salary, or $1,400 for the term of four years, in case of his election.

The name of the aspirant for sheriff who promised the taxpayers this measure of relief was not given. The circular stated his belief that "descending prices for commodities should carry with them reductions in official salaries."

County Attorney Barrett in his letter said that "certain parties" were objecting to this kind of advertising, but did not say who they were. He thought it might be difficult to force a candidate to keep his word if the voters elected him.

As viewed by Assistant Attorney General Dort, anyone pledging himself in advance of election to refund part of his salary could be prevented from taking the office, as he would have to make oath that he had not "improperly influenced the vote of any elector," and if he swore falsely it would disqualify him and forfeit his civil rights.

Holds Payment a Violation.

Dort calls attention to the provision of the corrupt practices act, specifying what sums of money a candidate may spend in procuring his election. This says nothing about paying back to the county $350 a year, and hence he holds any such pament would be in violation of the law.

"The salaries of our public officers are fixed by law and it was never intended that any office should be auctioned off by the public to the person who may be willing to perform the duties for the smallest compensation," says the assistant attorney general.

Several Nebraska supreme court decisions are cited, among them that in the case of Gallaher vs. city of Lincoln, where judgment was given an official for his full salary after he had agreed to take less.

A Missouri decision is also quoted declaring void the election of a candidate who "bribed the public" by offering to accept a lower salary than the law allowed him.

Mr. Dort does not go so far as to say that it is bribery for a candidate to tell the taxpayers that he will work for less than the legal salary, but he insists that anyone who does so thereby violates the law and invalidates his title to the office if he is elected.

DAIREN PARLEY HAS COLLAPSED

Japan Draws Out and Orders New Troops Sent Into Siberia.

(Associated Press.)

TOKIO, April 17.—Japan has instructed here delegates to withdraw from the Dairen conference with representatives of the Siberian government at Chita.

The ground for withdrawal of the Japanese, it was said at the foreign office, today, was that the Chita government made proposals in reply to Japan's notification of date for evacuation of Siberia which upset agreement reached regarding protection of lives and property and adoption of the open door policy.

In consequence of the Japanese decision the government is sending the staff of the Eighth division with a brigade of infantry, a regiment of cavalry, field artillery and a battalion of engineers "to replace the troops now stationed in Siberia," according to an official announcement.

The Dairen conference between representatives of the far eastern republic of Siberia and Japan opened last August. It has been reported on the verge of breaking up several times due to divergencies of opinion. Sanguinary fighting between the Japanese forces and those of the Chita government had been reported recently.

Flynn Finds Crop Conditions Greatly Improved in State

Crop conditions in the south central and south-western parts of Nebraska have improved greatly in the last two weeks, E. Flynn, general superintendent of the Burlington said Monday. The storm a week ago, which cost the telephone and railroad companies many thousands of dollars, was worth a great deal to farmers along the Kansas line, Mr. Flynn said, as the heavy wet snow was the first moisture there in several months and the ground was so dry that hopes of raising a wheat crop this year had been almost abandoned in some sections. Taken as a whole, Mr. Flynn considers crop conditions in the southern half of Nebraska very satisfactory for this time of year.

EXPERTS DECLARE EUROPE MUST CUT LAND ARMAMENTS

France Stands in Way of Discussion of General Army Slash.

After Genoa, What?—Question is Uppermost in Minds of Envoys.

(Associated Press.)

GENOA, April 17.—After Genoa! This question is uppermost in the minds of the delegates to the international economic conference. Experts and delegates alike agree that it probably will be necessary to have at least two more conferences before peace is restored and financial reconstruction is possible in Europe.

Granting the Russian problem is settled in principle and recognition is granted Russia by the Genoa conferees which apparently is the most that can be hoped for from the present gathering—a disarmament conference probably would be the next step in an effort to end what the Russians say is virtually a state of war between Japan and soviet Russia and Rumania and soviet Russia. Turkey and Greece might also be admitted to this conference in an effort to stop the fighting in Asia Minor.

France has expressed a desire to discuss disarmament with her friends but not with her enemies consequently there may be some difficulty in getting her to enter a general disarmament or peace conference embracing all the powers which still have armies on a war footing.

Frank Vanderlip, the American financier; Prof. Gustav Cassell, the Swedish economist and other experts at Genoa apparently are agreed that summoning of a disarmament conference is a necessary step before a successful financial or economic ... ley is possible as lessened military expenses are imperative before loans can be floted on a large scale.

Would Not Take Part.

The United States and Germany probably would not participate in this as Germany is already disarmed under the Versailles treaty and the United States is not directly concerned with European army affairs.

Washington is generally regarded as the best site for an economic conference to follow the disarmament meeting, but holding the ... there would scarcely be possible unless the Russian government were in the meantime recognized by the United States.

As the chances for recognition of the soviet by the European powers becomes brighter, the interest in America's attitude toward Russia increases and the delegates are eagerly asking the Americans in Genoa how long the United States will hold aloof politically from the Moscow government which it is helping so generously with food.

France's fixed determination not to permit the slightest revision of the Versailles treaty would undoubtedly prove a great handicap to another economic or other financial conference which would have to deal so largely with the reparations problems but the present conference ... breaking much ice and Mr. Lloyd George, the British premier, is generally looked upon as a leader skillful enough to overcome any French opposition in this regard.

The financial commission of the conference continued its examination today of several proposals concerning currency.

The monetary conditions of the various countries are said to differ so much that it is impossible to adopt a rule which will apply to all and the majority of the delegates are agreed upon a plan for convoking an international monetary convention to be attended by representatives of the central banks of issue.

Such a convention would have as its principal object formulation of advice as to the best means of economizing the use of gold by maintaining reserves in the form of foreign ... such for instance, as the gold exchange, or an international clearing system.

LENINE SENDS A NOTE TO HARDING

Believed That Message Will Help Shape U. S. Policy Toward Soviets.

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—A message that is expected to be an important factor in shaping the administration's policy toward soviet Russia is now ... from Nicolai Lenine to President Harding. It is being brought to the United States ... was learned today on good authority by ex-Governor James P. Goodrich of Indiana who has been in Russia for some weeks in connection with the administration of American relief distribution.

Governor Goodrich left Washington several months ago after spending some weeks here familiarizing himself with details of the administration' policy toward Russia and the factors governing possible recognition.

Governor Goodrich saw Lenine a number of times and ... the soviet chieftain with the views of President Harding with the result that Lenine was plan to take the opportunity to send a message to Washington.

The nature of the Russian communications is, of course, not known officially here. But Governor Goodrich's arrival in Washington is eagerly awaited.

Some real and concrete developments in Russian-American relations are expected in the very near future. It is confidentially believed in many quarters that some form of American recognition for the Lenine-Trotsky regime is not far distant.

NEW TREATY SETS UP RELATION ON AN EQUAL BASIS

Russian-German Pact Signed by Envoys of Two Nations at Genoa.

Comes as Rather Rude Surprise to Delegates Attending Conference.

(Associated Press.)

GENOA, April 17.—A treaty between Germany and Russia was signed at Rapallo yesterday, the signatories being the foreign ministers of the two countries, George Chitcherin for Russia and Dr. Walter Rathenau for Germany. The treaty nullifies the Brest-Litovsk treaty and re-establishes full diplomatic relations on an equality basis.

The pact cancels all war claims, as well as claims arising from the nationalization of property.

In connection with the mutual renunciation of nationalization of property claims and war claims the treaty expressed the friendly hope that other powers would do likewise. Signing of the treaty came as a rather rude surprise to the Genoa conferees and it was pointed to by observers as likely to make more difficult the position of some other allies in their attitude toward Russia.

Replaces Brest-Litovsk Pact.

By the new treaty replacing the Brest-Litovsk pact which has been so humiliating to the soviet leaders, Germany is the first great power to grant Russia full recognition. Poland and the Baltic states have long had diplomatic relations with the soviet government but Germany has been withholding recognition because of failure to obtain satisfaction of the claims for the murder of Count Mirbach, assassinated in Moscow in 1918 when he went there as German ambassador under the terms of the Brest-Litovsk treaty.

Although negotiations between Germany and Russia have been in progress for some months on various subjects mostly relating to trade matters there had been no intimations that the signing of a formal treaty superseding the historic Brest-Litovsk pact of early 1918 was contemplated by the plenipotentiaries of the two nations at Genoa. The countries had previously made a trade agreement which became effective nearly a year ago.

The treaty of Brest-Litovsk was a sequel to the armistice between Germany and Russia signed at that place on December 11, 1917, following the rise of the bolsheviki to power in Russia. Peace negotiations were begun between Russia and Germany in 1918 but demands of the central powers were considered excessive by Russia, and Germany in 1918 but demands of the central powers were considered excessive by Russia, which refused to concede them.

The next move by Russia was to announce on February 10 that she had withdrawn from the war without signing a peace and had ordered immediate demobilization of the troops on all fronts. This maneuver did not satisfy the Germans however. Declaring the war was still on they renewed their invasion of Russia but this was speedily cut short by a declaration by the Russian government that it accepted the terms formerly declined and the signing at Brest-Litovsk on March 3 of the treaty now superseded.

As indicated these terms were virtually dictated by the central powers. Although war indemnities were renounced, Russia agreed to resign all claims to Finland, Esthonia, Livonia, Courland, Lithuania, Russian Poland and the Ukraine, to return all the Anatolian provinces to Turkey and to evacuate Russian Armenia.

This treaty was effective so far as it ... continuing provisions were concerned, however, only so long as Germany remained in the war. With the defeat Germany, in the treaty of Versailles agreed to accept the abrogation of the Brest-Litovsk and all other treaties entered into with the Maximalist government of Russia to recognize the full force of all treaties entered into by the allied and associated powers with states which were a part of the Russian empire and to recognize the frontiers as determined therein. It was added that the powers reserved the right of Russia to obtain restitution and reparations on the principles of the Versailles treaty.

ACCUSED SLAYER HIS OWN LAWYER

Man Charged With Murder Spurns Services of an Attorney.

OMAHA, April 17.—Otto Cole today ... in efforts to save himself from the electric chair ... acting as his counsel in his trial in district court on a charge of murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Harry Hahn, Omaha pawnshop ... slain in his store a few weeks ago.

Cole, who confessed police say that he escaped Joliet, Ill., penitentiary two years ago is accused of murder while attempting to rob, but his contention at the time of his arrest was that he killed Hahn following an argument over a loan on a watch he had pawned.

As the jurors were summoned he began taking notes and announced for a third time that he did not want a lawyer preferring to conduct his own case.

Church Treasurer Pleads Guilty to Taking Large Sum

OMAHA, April 17.—Manford E. Biggs, former treasurer of an Omaha church, pleaded guilty in district court today to a charge of embezzling $12,324 from his former employers, the Omaha Ice and Cold Storage company, and was sentenced to serve from two to five years in state prison.

GENERAL CHANG DECLARES CHINA LIKE SICK MAN

Manchurian War Lord Says What Nation Needs is Operation.

Believes It Will Be Painful. But Alleges End Will Justify Means.

CHINA LAND OF RUMORS.

China, the enigma of the Far East, is today a land of rumors. Everywhere there is activity. Civil war is imminent.

To get a true picture of what is going on in China, Edna Lee Booker, International News Service correspondent has undertaken one of the most unusual and perilous assignments ever handled by a woman.

Her exclusive interview today with Chang Tso-Lin is the first of a series with the big men of China today. To secure it she traveled from Shanghai to Mukden, Manchuria. Her next visit will be to Pekin. From Pekin she will go to Hankow and thence to the headquarters of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, head of the Southern China forces. For this trip a special escort of picked soldiers will be arranged.

MUKDEN, Manchuria, April 17.—China, like a sick man, needs an operation.

"It will be painful, but the results will justify the operation."

This was the declaration of General Chang Tso-Lin, war lord of Manchuria, and "strong man" of northern China, in an exclusive interview outlining his war policy. The interview was the first ever granted a woman.

It was given under dramatic ... circumstances. Your correspondent was the first American woman ever admitted into the palace. General Chang was in the midst of his preparations for war. The ... of troops were being dispatched to Pekin. Machine guns and airplanes—the modern implements of war—were being marshalled for departure.

"I am opposed to civil war," the Manchurian war lord explained. "I want unification of China without blood-shed," he declared. "But, I will give my life if necessary to secure unification.

"I appeal to America to support China in this crisis in her affairs. We appreciate America's sincere friendship as coming from the only nation that does not want our territory.

"The Washington conference teaches that China must unify and have a strong government which will meet her foreign loans.

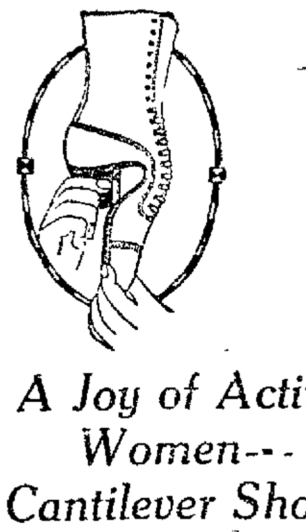

"With Canton, (South China), I am making unification plans. It is our desire to call an all-China conference, select a parliament, a new president and ratify the constitution."

Here General Chang took occasion to deny the stories that have been current of his presidential ambitions.

"I have no presidential ambitions" he told me. "I am working for the good of China.

"There will be no second Boxer uprising in conection with this move. Foreigners will be protected."

And after I had left the palace word came that Wu Pei Fu, rival war lord of Northern China, has troops enroute to Pekin also.

A Joy of Active Women—Cantilever Shoes

The women who know the practicability of short skirts, collarless necks, flexible corsets, can appreciate the advantages of Cantilever Shoes.

These shoes are, in the first place, good looking. The spring shoe styles are so sensible that Cantilever Shoes are stylish. They're graceful, well shaped shoes; finely made; reasonably priced.

Light and Flexible.

And they harmonize, like good pals with the active life of the modern woman! They're flexible, easy, efficient—full of pep and go. They let your feet let the toes bend, the arches flex. They add wings to your walk.

Cantilevers are flexible like youth—not stiff like old age. They keep the well foot well by permitting good circulation and exercise of the foot muscles. They support a weak arch like a bandage round the instep and allow nature to strengthen the foot through the simple exercise of walking.

Wear shoes that "wear well" ... both senses. Come and see the Cantilever. Shown in our store exclusively.

MUSIC TEACHERS OPEN CONVENTION

Sixth Annual Meeting of State Association Opens Monday Morning.

Molzer, In President's Address, Pleads for Better Music.

The sixth annual convention of the Nebraska Music Teachers' association opened at 10 o'clock Monday morning in the ball room of the Lincoln hotel. Probably due to the bad weather, the attendance was not large, but it is thought that a great many members of the organization from out in the state will be present for the Tuesday and Wednesday sessions.

Prof. August Molzer, president of the association called the meeting to order and introduced Mayor Frank Zehrung, who in a very interesting talk welcomed the out of town guests to the city. Mayor Zehrung also spoke of the benefits of such an organization, and told the teachers who were present that it was within their power to abolish the jazz music that has been circulating through the country the last six or seven years, and inspire a deeper interest in the true art among their pupils.

After responding to Mayor Zehrung on behalf of the association, Prof. Molzer gave a paper on the aims and objects of the association, and told of the heights it hopes to reach before long. Prof. Molzer said that there should be no prejudice and criticism for fellow artists among the members of the association, that they should all work together as a body, and in that way the fine arts would be developed.

To Better Music.

Prof. Molzer talked to the teachers on how they could better their work, and how they could use their influence among their pupils to abolish the "disreputable disgraceful and impossible rubbish" that had claimed the attention of the majority of young people today. He told of the students' contests which are to be held during the convention, and told of the purpose of such contests, which is to grade the student, not according to how much musical education they have had, nor how brilliantly they play, but for their true musicianship, their real ability. Scores will be kept, and each student will be given a grade on every phase of his work.

Following the president's address, Prof. Paul H. Grummann director of the Fine Arts college, University of Nebraska, gave a splendid talk on "The Place of Music in our Educational System." Prof. Grummann spoke of the part that the arts played in the education of children, and how the arts could be farther developed in their education. He said that he was afraid that the majority of teachers paid too much attention to the technique of children, rather than allowing them to revel in the art itself.

Retaining Interest.

"In order to interest the child it is almost always necessary to let them begin with something that appeals to their imagination," said Prof. Grumann. "Take a fourteen year old boy, for instance. He would not be interested in drawing a classic or something that he had not come in contact with or had not experienced, but he would be very much interested in drawing something that he was familiar with, and probably came into his every day life. The same is true with music or dramatic art, the child does not want to play something he is not at all interested in, nor can he express an emotion that he has never felt."

Prof. Grummann said he thought too many parents allowed their children to carry arts along with their school work, and said that this was a mistake. The child can not do justice to either the school or music. He said, however, that if one were specializing in some kind of art, whether it be music, dramatics or painting, that one should take academic studies at the same time.

The afternoon was given over to institutes and a lecture recital by Robert Schmidt at the Matinee Musicale.

MRS. MARY A. SPENCER, of Watertown, N. Y., aged 75, who declares she gained fifteen pounds on Tanlac and feels just fine all the time. Was in badly run-down condition.

"Just think of it, at seventy-five years of age to be made well and strong again, and gain twelve pounds in weight, but this is exactly what I did after taking Tanlac. Not only that, I feel years younger," said Mrs. Mary A. Spencer, East St., life-long resident of Watertown, N. Y.

"For over a year I was in a terribly run-down condition and I was so nervous and restless that many a night I would hear the clock strike every hour. I was able to eat very little and lost strength right along, finally becoming so weak I could hardly walk from one room to the other.

"On account of my age I thought my declining health was natural, but Tanlac has proved that I was mistaken. I can do all my own housework now, I sleep all night long, wake up in the morning feeling refreshed and just fine all the day long. Tanlac can't be praised too much."

Tanlac is sold in Lincoln by Harley Drug Co., and leading druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

MACHINE COMPANY LOSES ITS CASE

U. S. Court Prohibits Use of Certain Lease Clause in Rental Contracts.

(Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The government today won in the supreme court in the case brought by the United Shoe Machinery corporation and others to have set aside the restraining order prohibiting them from using certain lease clauses in their contracts for the rental of patented machinery.

The supreme court affirmed the decree of the United States district court at St. Louis, which enjoined the corporation under the Clayton act.

The lower federal court prohibited the corporation from compelling by lease agreements, the exclusive use of its machines and from enforcing an alternative royalty clause upon all footwear manufactured in factories where machines of competitors were also used. It also held invalid the agreement by which the corporation required those using its machines to purchase supplies of it.

COOPERS CHARGED WITH TAX FRAUDS

Three Millionaires Are Indicted by Federal Grand Jury.

Evidence in Case Unearthed by Investigators at Omaha.

OMAHA, Neb., April 17.—The biggest income tax fraud on record is alleged to have been uncovered by the local office of the internal revenue department, on the heels of the arrest Friday of Austin A. William F., and Kathryn Cooper, millionaires of Dubuque, Ia., on charges of falsifying returns to the government, withholding $237,996.04.

J. J. Drakeford, revenue agent in charge of Iowa and Nebraska, with headquarters here; J. H. Sherlock, C. F. Riley and A. J. Nelson are the quartet credited with the discovery.

"We worked a whole year collecting our evidence," said Sherlock.

Nine indictments were returned against the wealthy trio by the federal grand jury of northern Iowa on April 5, but it was kept a secret until Friday.

"Wilfully evading the income tax law," "making inadequate returns for three years," and "perjury" are the counts.

The indicted trio belongs to one of the oldest and wealthiest families in Dubuque. They are children of the founder of the Cooper Wagon works, famous all over the world. Austin owns the Julian Dubuque hotel, the leading hostelry.

Trial is set for April 25 and will be keenly watched by the department in Washington and revenue agents throughout the country, according to Drakeford.

The Coopers are out on bond.

Two First Places Go to Wood Lake School Declaimers

(Special to The Star.)

AINSWORTH, April 17.—The annual declamatory contest of the Northwest Nebraska Declamatory association was held in this city Friday evening. Contestants from nine schools participated, the schools being, Chadron, Springview, Wood Lake, Rushville, Merriman, Gordon, Crawford, Valentine and Ainsworth. Because of the large number of contestants it was necessary to hold two sessions, one being held in the afternoon and the other in the evening. The judges were W. E. Flake, of Station, Ernest C. Nyrop, of Neligh and Mrs. C. W. Hawkinson, from Midland College at Fremont. The referee was A. J. Hill, of Long Pine.

Mabel Day of Wood Lake took first place in the dramatic section, with Harriet Stevenson of Valentine second and Stanley Ballard of Chadson, third. The winner of first place in the oratorical section was Garrit Tyler of Wood Lake, while Ross Smyth of Springview was second and Emerson Miller of Chadron, third. In the humorous section Miriam Gardner of Chadron won first place, May Davis of Gordon, second and Hope Naylor of Merriman, third. A large crowd was in attendance and some very fine work was done by the contestants.

The officers of the association elected for next year are T. R. Crawford, of Chadron, president; D. C. Clark, of Springview, vice president; and Bertha Cockrell of Gordon, secretary-treasurer.

Superior Couple Are Married on Easter Morning

(Special to The Star.)

SUPERIOR, Neb., April 17.—Miss Sylvia Butler became the bride of Fred Straley at a pretty wedding at 8 o'clock Easter morning at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Butler. Rev. Earl E. Bowen performed the ceremony, using the ring service.

Mrs. Straley is the youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Butler. She was born in Superior and graduated from the Superior high school. Since that time she has been assistant cashier in the Citizens State bank. Mr. Straley is well known to the grain trade throughout the state, having been connected with the grain firm of Elliott-Myers for a number of years. After a brief honeymoon in Kansas City the young couple will be at home 325 Central avenue, Superior.

Former Table Rock Man Dies in West

(Special to The Star.)

TABLE ROCK, NEB., April 17.—Word has reached here of the recent death of Richard Allen, at his home at Berkley, Cali., after an illness of many months of tuberculosis. He was about forty-three years of age. He was born and grew to manhood in this vicinity, and graduated from the Table Rock high school in 1897. He was one of the first Table Rock boys to enlist in the Spanish-American war and was sent to the Phillipines, and while there received an injury from which he never recovered. Soon afterward he moved to California and worked at the printing trade, making his home with an uncle, Woodson Allen, for many years a resident of Table Rock. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, a sister Mrs. Ruby Fellers, of Axtell Kas., and a brother, Gus Allen of Wymore.

BEATRICE, Neb., April 17.—Cecil Shotenkirk, a high school student, pleaded guilty in district court Saturday to taking an auto belonging to H. W. Ahlquist of this city without the consent of the owner. He gave bond for his appearance and was placed in charge of Probation Officer McGirr.

VAST SUM COMES TO HELP FARMERS

War Finance Corporation Loans Nearly Fifteen Million to Nebraskans.

OMAHA, Neb., April 17.—Applications of 13,900 Nebraska farmers and ranchers for loans from the Omaha agency of the War Finance corporation have been acted upon favorably, according to a statement made by F. W. Thomas, regional chairman of the corporation in this territory.

The applications have totaled 869, with an average of 16 farmers' notes in each, Mr. Thomas stated. The majority of these notes are secured by chattel mortgages on growing cattle and hogs, which bids well toward maintaining a steady market on live stock, experts say.

The effect of bringing War Finance funds to Nebraska has resulted in raising the grain and live stock market from 50 to 100 per cent during the last winter, Mr. Thomas said. The total amount of loans since November 1 has reached $14,197,269.09. The War Finance corporation, according to Mr. Thomas, has given especially beneficial products in an endeavor to dispose of surplus products which had a deterent effect on markets.

Military Funeral Held at Beatrice For Slain Soldier

(Special to The Star.)

BEATRICE, Neb., April 17.—A military funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Athletic park for the late Arthur Bitting, Beatrice war hero who was killed in action in the Argonne forest, September 29, 1918. Bitting-Norman post, American Legion and Company C participated in the services. Music being furnished by the Beatrice Municipal band, Lenhart's orchestra and a double male quartet. Burial was in Evergreen Home cemetery. A beautiful silk flag purchased by Bitting-Norman post was used during the services for the first time.

Stratton Band to Have New Leader

(Special to The Star.)

STRATTON, Neb., April 17.—S. E. Moore, who for the past eight months has directed the Stratton band with marked success, has resigned for the purpose of taking up the leadership of a band for an amusement company. In the short time he was in Stratton Mr. Moore developed one of the best bands in southwestern Nebraska. He is to be succeeded by Mr. Forest, who comes from Boulder, Col., and who has a reputation which would indicate his ability to continue the excellent work which has been begun. During the coming summer the Stratton band will have about forty-five instruments and will give regular weekly concerts.

The machine was broken to bits. Mrs. Stevens' legs and arms were broken and she was badly mangled. The car was traveling at high speed.

Stevens was taken to Lord Lister hospital, where his life is feared for. Doctors said he possibly had internal injuries.

Community Spirit Is Quickened in Ainsworth People

AINSWORTH, April 17.—The community festival, staged by the community club came to a close last night, when C. Durant Jones, president of the Jones Chautauqua System, of Iowa, lectured to a packed house on "How to Be Happy Through Living in Ainsworth." The series of lectures has lasted the greater part of the week and it has given the work of the community club considerable impetus. Mr. Jones lectured to the high school each day and his lectures there were fully as popular as his public addresses. The community club gave a luncheon in his honor Friday evening and one hundred business men were in attendance. Short talk were given by various business men, and Mr. Jones gave an address on "Some Fundamentals of Town Building."

Talk of Contest Of the Election Held at Randolph

(Special to The Star.)

RANDOLPH, Neb., April 17.—There is a rumor afloat that the recent city election will be contested in the south ward in which George Reed won the election of councilman over Charles Howell by ten votes. The polls in that ward were closed at 7 p. m., but several voters coming late declared that the polls should remain open until 8 which was the closing time in the north ward. The judges then reopened the polls until 8, seventeen votes being cast in the last hour. It is not known the exact number of votes given each candidate at seven o'clock but it is thought that Howell was ahead. As yet no legal action has been taken and it is doubtful if the complaint will be filed.

Knights Templar At Easter Service

(Special to The Star.)

FAIRBURY, Neb., April 17.—Special Easter services were held in all of the Fairbury churches. The Knights Templar, escorted by the DeMolay chapter, attended the Baptist church, where Rev. Wyrick delivered an appropriate sermon. At the Christian church an Easter cantata was presented in the evening.

(Special to The Star.)

TABLE ROCK, Neb., April 17.—Donald, the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Ingalls of Humboldt, was badly scalded recently. He was hurrying through the house, and ran against a pan containing boiling water and was terribly burned about the face and neck, but is slowly recovering.

Discredit Report Lloyd-George Has Resignation Ready

PARIS, April 17.—A rumor is rife at Genoa that Premier Lloyd-George is going to resign his office at the close of the Genoa conference, according to a dispatch printed here today. The report said the premier has already signed a contract with a publishing house to write a book entitled "Tragic Hours—War and Peace."

Discredit Reports

LONDON, April 17.—The rumor that Premier Lloyd-George is going to resign at the conclusion of the Genoa conference is not credited here. The premier's position, it was pointed out today, is now stronger than it has been in many months. If he succeeds at Genoa, it was declared in official circles today, his chances at the next general election are better than ever.

Warns Against European Loans

BERLIN, April 17.—"Continental Europe is, I fear, infected with the soft money virus and until it has run its course in those regions where it is epidemic, Americans should be extremely wary with respect to investments or loans, even in a great industrial country like Germany."

Oscar Terry Crosby, former assistant secretary of the United States treasury, made this declaration in discussing his impressions, gained by four weeks' survey of the German situation, in the course of which he was in active touch with government officials and banking and industrial leaders.

CLASS PREMIUMS FOR STATE FAIR TOTAL $43,000

State Divided Into Four Agricultural Regions for 1922 Exposition.

First Prizes on Corn and Other Grains as High as $400 in Some Cases.

Forty-three thousand dollars will be awarded for class premiums at the Nebraska state fair, to be held here September 3-8, according to announcement of the advanced premium list. The state has been the county agricultural collective exhibits, with premiums ranging from $400 for first place down to $50 for sixth place in each district. An additional $50 will be awarded to each county winning first place in each district, according to the announcement.

The class of exhibits includes corn, other than corn dent, wheat, oats, barley, other varieties of grain, seed and forage crops, grain in sheaf, native grasses, tame grasses, potatoes, onions, tomatoes, cabbage, squashes, melons, pumpkins, root crops, miscellaneous field and garden crops, number of varieties, taste in display and artistic display. The limited number of varities in the various classes range from twenty up to open in everything.

Encourage Artistic Displays.

With the exception of corn, other than dent, miscellaneous field and garden crops, taste in display and artistic display the possible number of points that can be obtained is 100. The exception carrys fifty possible points.

The score card to be used will require 1,000 points for a perfect score. Each county in each district that fails to place in the money but scores above 400 points will be awarded $50. The omission of any one item will mean the loss of 100 points.

The board requires that all exhibits must be grown in the county, and of 1922 growth. Sheaf grains not of the present years growth will be excluded from competition, although the mature corn of previous years' growth may be used in making an exhibit of this class.

The board has appealed to every county in the state to enter the contest and begin to prepare an entry for each of the classes.

POISON DRAUGHT FATAL TO DOCTOR

Bichloride of Mercury Taken by Mistake Kills Indiana Physician.

(International News Service.)

WHITING Ind., April 17.—Inquest into the death of Dr. Edward K. Newton, who fought a twelve day battle against the effects of two grains of bichloride of mercury taken by mistake, was to be held today.

Dr. Newton on April 4., placed the poison tablets in a glass of water. Later he went to get a drink and as he turned from the faucet with a glass of water his telephone rang. Later he went back and drank what he thought was the water. Shortly afterward he became ill and discovered he had taken the bichloride of mercury by mistake.

Dr. Newton entered a hospital and began the personal direction of the fight for his life. A few days ago he realized that his life could not be saved and began to put his affairs in order. He died Sunday.

CENTRALIA, Ill., April 17.—One baby was killed and two persons are in a hospital here in a critical condition as a result of a tornado which struck Irvington, south of here, about midnight last night, hospital attendants reported here this morning. Mrs. Gus Droede, the extent of whose injuries has not been determined and Ernest Collins, a railroad employe who is suffering from a broken back, were treated enroute to this city from Irvington on a special train.

A number of other injured, the definite number not being learned today remained in Irvington. The majority are not considered serious.

A number of residents here were enroute to the stricken town to search for relatives who might be in need of aid. No line of communication had been restored at 8 o'clock.

The Illinois Central depot was lifted from its foundation and carried about 200 feet by the twister and was then safely deposited, remaining intact. No night agent is maintained at Irvington.

A box car on a siding was turned completely around and placed on a parallel track without any great damage.

The storm first struck here, traveling toward Irvington. The local light plant was put out of commission.

Early this morning linemen were working to restore communication. This town is littered with trees, telegraph poles and debris which fell in the wake of the twister.

The special train from Centralia to Irvington carried eight doctors and two or three nurses.

Walnut Hill Also Hit.

CENTRALIA, Ill., April 17.—Reports that a tornado struck Walnut Hill, a town of 100 persons and the village of Shooksville shortly after midnight were received here early today. The extent of the storm was not learned. No report of any damage or loss of life was received.

Hail Follows Storm.

ST. LOUIS, April 17.—A tornado three miles east of Montrose, demolished two houses yesterday, according to reports here early today. Occupants of both houses escaped injury by fleeing to the basements. A hail and rainstorm followed. Much damage to young fruit is reported from Fayette.

Wipes Out Town.

(International News Service.)

CENTRALIA, Ill., April 17.—Irvington, a town of 309 inhabitants six miles south of here, was practically destroyed by a cyclone early today, according to reports received here.

One person was killed and eight severely injured, these reports said. It was feared that the death toll would mount, when a complete check of the casualties was made today.

Almost every house in Irvington was reported blown over and many farm houses in the vicinity destroyed. Physicians and nurses have been sent from here to care for the injured.

Telephone and telegraph communication with Irvington was cut off when the cyclone swept down all the wires.

The twister was the culmination of a day of storms in flood-swept Illinois.

Wind at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 17.—Hail, wind and rainstorms swept over eastern Kansas and western Missouri last night and heavy damage was reported from various sections. In this city the hail stones, driven before a high wind broke hundreds of windows.

Iola, Kas., reported nearly every window broken by hail and heavy damage to fruit blossoms.

Fayette, Mo., suffered a severe hail storm which broke scores of windows and damaged crops. The memorial windows of the Centenary Methodist church were shattered.

Heavy rains were reported at Springfield, Mo., while at Montrose, Mo., a small tornado late yesterday destroyed one home and injured several persons, none seriously.

Goes to Land of Spirits to Guide Husband's Welfare

NEWARK, N. J., April 17.—Mrs. Maud Fancher, who drank poison last Thursday, after killing her baby because of her desire to enter spiritland and direct her husband's future activities, died early today in the City hospital. During her last conscious hours, Mrs. Fancher ceased all references to spiritualism.

Home of Mining Electrician is Wrecked by Bomb

GREENSBURG, Pa., April 17.—Early today, the home of Thomas Kelly, employed as an electrician at the Garfield Smokeless Coal company, was blown up and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, their two children and Mr. Kelly's brother escaped death narrowly. Simultaneously the electrical equipment of his employers' workings at Garfield were wrecked by persons still unidentified. Work in the mine will be completely suspended until repairs are made. The company employs non-union men.

AN UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT MADE TO MURDER COLLINS

Irish Free State Leader Attacked On Way Home After Making Speech.

One of Attacking Party Captured by Guard Accompanying Chief.

(Associated Press.)

DUBLIN, April 17.—An attempt on the life of Michael Collins, head of the provisional Free State government was made here shortly after midnight coming almost simultaneously with an assault on the Beggars Bush headquarters of the Irish republican army, says an official army statement.

Mr. Collins was on his way home after having addressed a meeting at Naas, county Kildare, when the attack occurred.

A group of armed men rushed at the Collins party's car and opened fire, the Free State leader apparently being the especial target. The Collins men returned the fire quickly and one of the attackers was captured. A revolver and a live bomb were found on him.

During the fighting a general headquarters car from the Beggars Bush barracks was disabled by rifle fire and captured.

The headquarters barracks was attacked by riflemen on all sides at midnight, about twenty shots being discharged. Commandant General Ennis was fired at outside of the gate. The garrison raked the surrounding teritory with bullets and the assaulting party withdrew.

An army transport also was attacked, but without results, the besiegers fleeing after a sharp exchange of shots.

Shots were fired on the premises occupied by the civic guards at Balls Bridge. No damage and no casualties were reported.

In his speech at Naas, County Kildare, yesterday, Mr. Collins charged the opponents of provisional Free State government with setting barriers against the onward march of the nation.

He declared that Eamon De Valera had adopted "methods of anarchy" because the people of Ireland were not willing to allow him to decide the treaty question for them.

De Valera regarded this attitude of the people as an "unforgivable sin" and for it they were to be deprived of their right to choose a government.

Fear Not Justified

LONDON, April 17.—Easter Monday was looked forward to with little trepidation by the citizens of Dublin. Reports to the morning newspapers indicated there was nothing to justify an assumption that the day would bring such an explosion as the rebellion of 1916.

The Times Dublin correspondent says the statement by Rory O'Connor, head of the troops which seized the Four Courts, that his forces did not contemplate a coup bears the stamp of sincerity and the city has become quite hopeful.

Southern Mob Cleans Up Town

HAYNESVILLE, La., April 17.—Persuaded to wait until the man they were after, had been identified by his alleged victim, a mob variously estimated at 200 to 500, which surrounded the Haynesville jail last night, bent on taking Ralph Coleman, suspect in the assault and robbery of Tony Pierce left 100 of its members at the jail and started on a "cleaning" of Haynesville.

SCENE PREPARED FOR SMALL CASE

Attorneys for Both Sides on Ground Ready to Go to Work.

Trial Expected to Set Record for Length of Time Required.

(International News Service.)

WAUKEGAN, Ill., April 17.—With jurymen arriving on every train and with the legal batteries of both factions on the ground, the trial of Len Small, governor of Illinois, charged with conspiracy to embezzle, again occupied the center of the stage in Illinois.

Members of the Small party arrived this morning and declared themselves ready for the trial. The defense attorneys today reiterated their assertion that no further delay of the trial will be asked by them.

The defense will be headed by Attorney C. C. LeForgee of Decatur, Ill. Associated with him are Warner Schroeder of Kankakee and Alex Beaubien of Waukegan.

A battery of twelve will represent the state in the battle. Headed by James H. Wilkerson, first assistant to Attorney General Brundage, and Fred Mortimer, state's attorney for Sangamon county, where Small's indictment was returned, the legal force of the state will include Attorneys Edward Pree, Chicago; Gerfield Charles, Chicago; William F. Weiss, Ralph J. Dady and E. J. Clarke, Waukegan.

The probable length of time required for selecting a jury to try Small is uncertain. Estimates vary from three to six weeks. It is predicted by many intimate with the case that at least 1,500 talesmen will have been examined before a jury of twelve shall have been selected. The present jury array includes names of 2,2000 men. The general belief is that all records of length of time required and for number of jurors examined in the history of the state will have been eclipsed when the frequently delayed trial reaches the stage of presenting of evidence.

NEW YORK, April 17.—John McCormack, the tenor, ill from a serious throat infection, continued to improve today, his physicians announced.

Traders Uncertain About Wheat Market

CHICAGO, April 17.—Wheat opened 1/4c lower to 1-2c higher today at $1.43 to $1.43 1-2 for May delivery after an extraordinary jump of 9c a bushel on Saturday. Before trade there much uncertainty had been expressed as to whether the violent upturn on Saturday was the beginning of still greater rise in values or whether a reaction would take place.

POPULATION OF INSTITUTIONS IS INCREASING

Big Gain in Six Months in Number of State's Wards.

Total of 5,749 Inmates in Seventeen Institutions —867 Employes.

The population of the seventeen charitable, eleemosynary, corrective and penal institutions under the direction of the state board of control increased approximately 160 in the period from July 1921, to January 1922 while the number of employes in the institutions increased about fifty, according to figures compiled by the board. Since January, the population and number of employes has changed but little, according to the secretary.

Included in the report for the last six months of 1921, however, are thirteen employes and seventy-four inmates at the state reformatory, which was not accounted in the July, last, compilation.

The latest available figures on the population of the institutions show a total of 867 employes and a population of 5,749, compared with 821 employes and population of 5,585, in July, 1921. The Hastings state hospital led in number of employes and inmates, with 166 employes and 1,184 inmates.

The number last July was 155 employes and 1,156 inmates. The state reformatory for women at York show the lowest number, with four employes and a population of thirteen, compared with four employes and a population of ten in July, last.

Indicated State Department Behind Boris Bakhmeteff

WASHINGTON, April 17. The state department is understood to be preparing to call the attention of the senate labor committee to the usual diplomatic immunity of foreign ambassadors in connection with the committee's subpoena of Boris Bakhmeteff, the last accredited Russian ambassador here to testify in its investigation of the affairs of General Gregorie Semenoff.

A protest against the committee' summons is understood to have been communicated to the department by embassy officials and although no one at the department would express an opinion on the subject the impression was given today that Mr. Bakhmeteff still might reasonably be regarded as a full fledged ambassador, despite the fact that Kerensky government which sent him here went out of existence five years ago.

Heaviest Snow of Winter at Denver

DENVER, Col., April 17.—Denver today is experiencing the heaviest snowfall of the present winter. Starting Saturday night, snow has fallen continuously since. Already approximately nine inches has fallen with a precipitation of 1.34 inches. The storm, according to the weather bureau is local, no snow having fallen south of Pueblo.

Early reports to the weather bureau stated a light snow was falling in southeastern Idaho and parts of Wyoming. In Denver thermometers registered 24 degrees above zero. At Cheyenne it was 20 above zero, and at Goodland, Kas., 28 above.

A thunderstorm of some severity, truck Goodland, Kas., today, accompanied by a north wind with a velocity of 34 miles an hour.

"Clean Up" Squad Makes Its Report

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The nation-wide clean up campaign just concluded by the United States veterans bureau resulted, according to statistics, in the filing of approximately 110,000 claims, while 4,495 veterans found in need of medical attention, were placed in hospitals.

During the campaign, every state and 1,500 cities were visited by squads from the bureau.

SULPHUR CLEARS ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist.

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ring worm.

It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream. — Advertisement.

CHAPTER 618

With eagerness I make no effort to mask, I caught up the big, square letter lying on the table of the wide Sturges hall. My glimpse of Jim's handwriting on the envelope made the tangle of problems the day had brought seem suddenly negligible. For a happy moment there were just two persons in my whole world—Jim and I.

As I turned toward the stairway Carlotta called me. I looked up to find her smiling at me with gentle understanding.

"Run along upstairs for a quiet hour, honey," she said in a muted voice full of rich undertones. "This has been an—emotional day for you. I'll be here ready to greet our dinner guest when she arrives. You trust the entertainment of Miss Storrs to me for a while. I'll tell Bertha not to announce dinner until 7:30, so you just take things easy."

With a word of thanks I hurried to my room tore open Jim's letter and, running across to the window so the clearest light should illuminate every word, I began to read.

"Lilac Princess," the letter began. "Lilac Princess." I could hear Jim murmur the love name. Way, way off, trailing like a ghost through my mind was an echo of "Lilac Princess"—an echo I didn't like—as if I'd heard it parodied in a mocking voice. But without permitting the ghost to haunt me, I went on.

"My dear friend, Rosa Cordova, will mail this letter special delivery," it read. "She'll start it off to you the minute she reaches the big city where it won't have any telltale postmarks. So what I have to say to you about my little delegate ought to reach you a minute ahead of her. Anne, dear, this will introduce you to the gamest little sport and cleverest business woman I've ever come across. You will have a chance to get two separate angles on her. I recommend a study of both to you.

"As the shrewd, level-headed woman with a man's brain you are going to deal with down in my office, you will take off your hat to her. As the aristocrat with charm and savoir faire who comes to live with you at Jeanie's, you'll give her your heart. No one could resist her."

I stopped reading. Mechanically I removed my hat and cape. Lifelessly I found a comfortable chair and pulled it into the shadows.

The first letter I've had from Jim for weeks! And I couldn't take it in. I couldn't bear to start with it in the full light of the waning day.

"Lilac Princess," it began—no more. And now I knew why there was a hint of mockery in the dear old love-name. Rosa Cordova had called me "White Lilac." Jim's love name isn't sacred to him if he can use it casually to any new acquaintance to whom he wants to give a description of his wife.

"Lilac Princess." It began—no with never a "dear" to soften it. Then it rang out in lavish praise of Rosa Cordova. Somehow I was afraid to go on. I was afraid of what I'd read next.

After a minute I forced my eyes back to the letter, grimly rereading the sentence which had hurt me so.

"As the aristocrat with charm and savoir faire who comes to live with you at Jeanie's, you'll give her your heart. No one could resist her."

Then I plodded on with none of the eagerness I had felt a little while before.

"I count on Virginia, of course. I can guess what she's been to you. Dear Jeanie. I feel a tower of strength in her. We are so alike, that in leaving her behind, I feel as if my other self behind, I feel as my thoughts I can guess what my sister has been to you."

I laughed bitterly. Perhaps almost viciously. Then I went on:

"Things are moving along better than I dared hope. Meeting Rosa and Ramon is the greatest piece of luck which has ever befallen me. They are a couple of wonders, have plenty of their own at stake, and share my feelings for a certain gentleman. As a combination I'll wager we are going to turn out unbeatable.

"Now if M. S. keeps things going at home we stand to come out very well. Help her all you can. But I'm sure I needn't remind you how much we both have at stake. I don't know how I'd endure asking you to begin over again at the bottom. But we won't cross this most unpleasant bridge until we come to it.

"It is hard to be entirely out of touch with the home folks. But, much as I long for news, I feel it isn't safe to furnish you with an address. You can write me, however, by living an occasional note to Rosa for inclosure in her reports. She feels it isn't wise to tell you even the exact place where I can be found. But you may think of me as living on the Cordova Rancho happily and contentedly with Ramon, who is the best sort of a good scout. And, of course, knowing you're with Jeanie, I don't have to agitate myself over you. So everything's fine and everybody's happy.

"Now—after this introduction—go to it, meet Rosa and do your best to help her.

"Lovingly, your husband,

"JIM."

"So everything's fine and everybody's happy," I repeated with twisting lips. "And that goes to show how much Jim misses me."

A knock sounded on the door and Bertha's voice whispered:

"Mrs. Harrison, Miss Storrs has been here some time and dinner's almost ready to serve. Do you come down?"

"Give me five minutes, please," I asked.

"Ten, if you like, Mrs. Harrison." The reply came in the firm, steady tones that have replaced the quivering, unhappy voice in which Bertha used to speak so timorously.

Hurrying to remove the grimy traces of a strenuous day, I pushed the thoughts of Jim's cold, unsatisfactory letter into the back of my mind. I have certain adjustments to make with Mabel. This very evening may give me the chance to persuade her to explain to Rosa Cordova just what her part was in Dick West's exploit of safe-robbing at Tampico.

But going over these possibilities as I made ready only served to invite the thought that assailed me with startling force the minute I relaxed and started down to join Carlotta and Mabel.

Jim's letter was supposed to reach me before my meeting with Rosa. Astonishment and dread whirled me past all barriers of hurt or disappointment.

Why did Rosa Cordova delay mailing the letter?

NEBRASKA IS NOW IN SECOND PLACE

Tied With Two States in Per Capita Ownership of Cars.

Questionnaires Show Increase in Percentage of Auto Owners in Last Year.

Nebraska has tied with California and South Dakota for second place in the United States in per capita automobile ownership, advancing from third place held last year, according to figures compiled by the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, taken from a questionnaire sent to registration departments of forty-eight states. Every 5.3 persons in Nebraska, California and South Dakota have an automobile, according to the figures, led only by Iowa, which ranks first, with a 5.2 per capita ownership.

The population of Nebraska however, is one million less than Iowa, and two million less than California, the figures show. South Dakota's record stands on a population given as 636,547. The number of automobiles owned by Nebraska's 1,296,372 people is given as 243,158, while California's 3,426,861 people owned 645,522 automobiles.

In Third Place Year Ago.

"A year ago," says an accompanying statement, "California held second place with per capita ownership of 5.7, Iowa was first, with 5.4, Nebraska tied with South Dakota for third place, with 5.0. This year's figures show that Kansas moved into the evacuated position of Nebraska, with a per capita ownership of 5.9."

The total number of automobiles in all states is shown to be 10,129,329 in a population of 105,273,049. The average per capita ownership is 10.07.

Colorado, Oregon, Washington, Minnesota, North Dakota, Indiana, Wyoming, Michigan, Nevada, Wisconsin, Ohio, Idaho and Oklahoma respectively follow Kansas in rank, according to the figures. Alabama is placed at the end of the column, its population of 2,348,174 being credited with 82,342 automobiles, or 28.5 per capita ownership.

New York and Pennsylvania, the two most densely populated states in the union, rank thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth, respectively, according to the figures.

Delaware, credited with the smallest population—223,003—ranks thirty-first, with 21,413 automobiles, or 10.6 per capita ownership, the figures show.

Pimply? Well, Don't Be

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel: there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.—Advertisement.

Klan Marches Into Church During a Templar Service

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 17.—While the congregation standing sang "Onward Christian Soldiers," six men, masked and robed in the garb of the Ku Klux Klan entered the Sharpsburg Presbyterian church on Sunday night and slowly marched down the main aisle to the pulpit, where one of their number handed a sealed envelope to Peter S. Barney, prelate of Allegheny commandery No. 35, Knights Templar. Then the Ku Klux members marched out of the church.

The envelope, containing Easter greetings and a $10 bill, was turned over to the pastor, Rev. Arthur W. French. The Templars were attending special Easter services at the church.

SEE HOW THESE STOVES

—Cut Gas Bills —Lessen Labor
—Saves Time —Retain the Flavor

MADAME HOUSEWIFE:

There's no good reason why you should spend so much time in the kitchen, when you can employ a Chambers Fireless Gas Range to do all the "watching" of the meals.

You can get a meal ready, put it in the Chambers Fireless, go about your other work or dress for a trip to the shops or theatre, and when you're ready, TURN OFF THE GAS and go along.

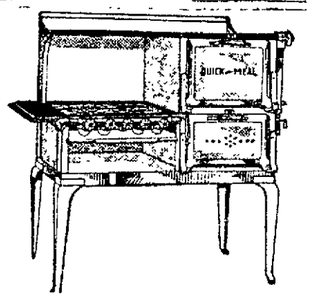

You are free to employ your afternoons as you please, free from kitchen worries, free from the drudgery of cooking, and cutting down the cost of living at the same time.

A Chambers Fireless Gas Range makes it possible to enjoy the finest kinds of foods, with the least possible energy and cost.

In a word, the Chambers Fireless may be summed up in the four great services.

CUTS GAS BILLS — SAVE THE FLAVOR
SAVES YOUR TIME — LESSENS LABOR

Let us show you the many advantages of this wonderful household Invention.

Turn Off The Gas and Go Away

WITH perfect confidence in the successful result of your cooking.

WITH every feeling of perfect safety in your little home,

WITH the joy of being carefree for a half day.

AND with that extreme gratification that though you are absent your are neglecting no domestic duty.

WITH the full assurance that upon your return you will find a well-cooked, steaming hot dinner ready to serve,

THIS, in a nutshell, is the great service which is being employed daily by the thousands of women who have in their kitchens the new

AMERICA'S OPPORTUNITIES.

One of our most common post-war fallacies is to suppose that America will be the same America she was before the war. We measure our industry, our commercial transactions and our foreign trade, too often, on the basis of conditions prior to 1914. In a small way we are becoming accustomed to the statement that America is now a creditor nation instead of a debtor, but we are slow in grasping the significance of this vast change.

The capital of Europe, especially in the latter part of the Nineteenth century, saw in America the great land of promise and investment; European money flowed to this country to be spent in railroads and other enterprises and the industries of the nation were heavily indebted to foreign stock and bondholders. We paid off our debts during the war and the tables are turned. We own the gold of the world; we are the world's banker.

Frank Lowden, former governor of Illinois and leading candidate for the republican presidential nomination in 1920, writes home from Europe that we must invest our idle gold in European enterprises just as Europe invested her gold in this country in the Nineteenth century. President Vanclain of the Baldwin Locomotive Works has been investing millions in European credits, and proclaims his faith in Europe. It is common sense that idle gold does no good while gold at work is beneficial.

Senor Sebastiao Sampaio, of the Brazilian consular corps, will address a number of Lincoln business men at the chamber of commerce next Thursday evening. Since he is in this country for the purpose of building up better trade relationships between the two republics, it may be assumed that he will enlighten his audience upon the resources of South America. To the south of us lies a vast continent which, so far as its undeveloped resources are concerned, is virtually a virgin land. There is a crying need in South America for capital to develop these resources just as the United States turned to Europe for capital a half century ago.

If America is to reap the fruits which a kindly Providence has made possible, we shall see great companies backed by American money, organized to develop the untouched regions of South America. We shall see American capital used to rehabilitate the devastated areas of Europe and our merchant marine shall fly the American flag and carry the world's trade. The tragedy of the hour is that at Washington we have a little handfull of senators whose vision is limited by the end of their nose. It taxes the imagination to picture the magnificent growth of America if seated in the congress halls were a half hundred men with the vision and the faith of a James Hill, the great empire builder of the northwest.

KEEPING HATE ALIVE.

A part of the French war museum at Paris is filled with a collection of German medals, documents and other things which are expressive of the hostility toward France in the late war. There seems to be no purpose for thus displaying these war materials except to keep alive the hatred which existed between the German and French during the war.

That section of the museum has been fittingly called the "museum of hate" and one may easily fancy French children visiting the place and inculcating in their plastic minds a hate for Germany which will obviously be of no good in re-establishing relations with the German republic.

There is such a thing as a good "hater," but that is not applicable in this instance. Of course, it is not easy for the French to forget the frightfulness of more than four years of conflict, but permanent peace is not founded upon the continued flaming of hate. One of the greatest blessings which has come to this country in the last half century is the complete healing of the wound caused by the Civil war. It would today be a tragic spectacle if the men of the blue and the men of the gray had not forgotten the bitterness of the sixties.

So must it be, as far as possible, with Germany and France. Though it is infinitely more difficult, the French and the Germans must bury their hatred if they are to enjoy peace on the continent. The "museum of hate" will prove a harmful influence if it is to exist in the Paris war museum.

There are two great handicaps to some musicians. Some have names of one or two syllables and some have more tha ntwo vowels in their name. To be a first class artist, one should have sixteen letters with only one vowel in his name.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS.

"Keep your war savings stamps," is the message which Lew Wallace, jr., director of savings of the treasury department, is sending out to the public. The war savings stamps issued in 1918 will mature January 1, 1923, and will be redeemed at par. These stamps were issued in unit denominations of $5. When purchased the first month in the year they sold for $4.12, and the sale price increased one cent each month until the end of the year. The stamps have always been redeemable and at the present time they are worth $4.63. But next January they will be worth $5 an increase of 37 cents. In other words, the increase of value of the stamps between now and January 1 is greater than during any previous period. That is why scalpers are so anxious to buy these stamps at the present time, even paying more than the government's redemption value.

"It would appear that the person who is trying to save is beset on all sides," says Director Wallace. "Those who bought war savings stamps were generally people of small means, with limited savings. For the most part they were patriotically inclined, and bought because they wanted to help the government with money in time of war. Many of them of necessity have sold their stamps or redeemed them at the price of purchase. Now, those issued in 1918 are approaching the period of their greatest value, and the ever ready sharper is trying to shave off a part of the savings of these people by offering them a slight increase over the present redemption prices. The government does not offer prorata redemption prices for its savings securities. Its policy is to encourage savings; to induce the investor to hold until maturity and then to re-invest. The new issue of savings certificates provides for redemption at any time, paying 31-2 per cent interest during the time of investment. But to encourage these investors to make the best of their savings, interest is paid at the rate of 4 1-2 per cent compounded semi-annually if the certificates are held until maturity, which is five years. Another advantage of the new savings certificate is that they are all sold at the same price no matter what time of the year they are purchased. They are sold at all postoffices and redeemed at the treasury department by mail."

Got cobwebs in your brain and spring fever in your body? Best cure in the world for such a malady is to hie to the woods and fry crisp bacon over the embers of a wood fire.

The greatest obstacle for the radio to overcome is that the family may stay at home and hear the concert. It offers no excuse for gadding.

BABE RUTH AND BRAIN POWER.

Dr. A. E. Winship, editor of the Journal of Education, has great admiration for Babe Ruth's earning capacity. Expressing the difference between the Babe's salary and that of leaders in the educational field he said in a recent speech:

"It is pure intensified brain power, such as no other American equals.

"Ruth's mind accurately estimates when and where the ball that is coming like lightning will cross the plate. At the same time he has decided just where to have his bat send the ball.

"America is waiting for an equally brainy university president to estimate what is best to equip students in college to give the best service in life."

It is true that Babe Ruth has a remarkable brain in certain respects. Psychological tests have indicated that within its limitations it works just the fraction of a second quicker than that of the ordinary man.

But so has a cat a remarkable brain within its limitations. The cat pouncing upon a mouse is not doing a thing materially different from that which Babe Ruth does when he swats the ball for a homer. The cat too must estimate the speed and direction of the object he is about to strike and he must time his spring with the nicest accuracy. The cat strikes his mouse infinitely better than Babe Ruth the ball because he rarely misses while Ruth misses oftener than not.

The power which Babe Ruth and the cat possess and exercise in such a spectacular manner we all possess in some degree. It is called co-ordination. We exercise it unconsciously when we walk. It is the power of compelling the muscles to respond instantly to the command of the brain. The skilled workman is skillful because he has mastered co-ordination in his particular field.

Co-ordination is a very useful and a very necessary gift. The man who possesses it to a marked degree in doing some particular thing does that thing better than one not so well equipped. But it is hardly the paramount requirement for a college president. It is a different function which his brain is called upon to perform, when it is given the task of estimating what is most needed to give the best possible education.

What America is waiting for is a college president who can analyze all the complex elements of human life and can apply the results of his analysis to the field of education as accurately and as powerfully as Babe Ruth lays his bat against the ball.—Omaha World-Herald.

CLOTHING DIAGNOSIS.

The clinic's the thing. Carnegie Tech has a clothes clinic for feminine attire. Says the head of that institution's costume economics department:

"The purpose of the clinic is to diagnose the ills of women's clothes just as a medical clinic diagnoses ills of a person's body."

It may sound wild and faddish, but it gains respect on second thought.

How can arbitrary fashion continue to work its freakish will on women's dress when science is coldly diagnosing its faults? Line, color, suitability, material, hygiene and comfort will come to play their important and rightful parts in the choice and design of individual costumes. Good taste rather than "good style" will be the deciding factor. Variety will remain, but not the bewildering variety of fickle fashion.

May the influence of the clothes clinic reach parent and child, teacher and flapper, business woman and society belle! And may it even, in its own good time, extend to such features of men's attire as do not now satisfy all the requirements of comfort and beauty.—Norfolk News.

A Bit of Homely Philosophy

ARE YOU HELPING THE MISGUIDED BROTHER?

In practically all secret bodies, it is said, each member takes an obligation in which he promises to do what he can to change the course of a fellow member whom he knows to be doing wrong.

The chances are, Mr. Lodge Man, that you know of certain things which your brother lodge member is doing that he should not do.

A word from you might mean reformation.

Often those who are engaged in something which is in opposition to the laws of society feel that they can cleverly cover their misdeeds and none need know.

Such persons would immediately abandon such a course if they believed that someone knew of their violations.

Sometimes you make an enemy of the man you approach, but would it not be better to do so than to have him go ahead in his wrong doing until he brings disgrace upon himself and his family?

If you were sincere when you took your lodge vows you should feel it your duty to try to save your fellow lodge member from downfall, when you know he is traveling forbidden paths.

Would you not want him to try to save you, if you were on the road to ruin?

More Truth than Poetry

GOING TO DESTRUCTION.

Flappers will bring on the next war. They will ruin and wreck the nation within fifty years, unless they are curbed.—Dr. J. Frank Norris, Revivalist.

Oh, boys, there is trouble ahead!
The flappers are out to decoy us;
If we yield to their calls, and are led
They will ruin and wreck and destroy us.
We are slipping! You know it, old things;
They charm us more pleasantly daily;
We have given discretion wide wings.
And dance to catastrophe gayly.

Their lashes are twisted and waxed;
Their work with the lipstick is cunning;
In a hundred sly ways we are taxed
For the things that they ought to be shunning.
They are setting a pace that will kill;
We follow where danger is present,
Persuaded with small effort still
That the wrecking's decidedly pleasant.

Boys, will you be boys, and be lured
By flappers whose smiles are seductive?
We are warned in good time, and assured
That exhibited charms are destructive!
The nation, they tell us, will fall,
And they leave us no reason to doubt it.
But on with the wreck! After all,
There is much that is pleasing about it.

Let the girls bob their hair, if they will;
Let them smoke if they like it, God bless them!
They may wreck us, but still! there's a thrill
In the old-fashioned chase to possess them.
We are nearing a brink that is high,
And the fall that impends will be frightful,
But who is prepared to deny
That the wrecking is very delightful?

Peaches and Persimmons

"Business Is Good.

"The Farmer sells a load of wheat,
And all the world grows fair and sweet;

He hums a couple of cheerful tunes,
And pays the Grocer for his prunes.

The Grocer, who has had the blues,
Now buys his wife a pair of shoes.

That ten the Shoeman thinks God-sent,
And runs and pays it on the rent.

Next day the Rent Man hands the bill
To Doctor Carver for a pill.

And Dr. Carver tells his Frau
That business is improving now.

And cheers her up and says: 'My dear,
You've been quite feeble for a year.

I'm thinking you should have a rest.
You'd better take a trip out west.'
And in a couple of days the Frau
Is on the farm of Joshua Howe.

She pays her board to Farmer Howe,
Who takes the bill and says, 'I swow.
Here's something that just can't be beat—
This bill's the one I got for wheat.'

He hums a couple of cheerful tunes,
And goes and buys a lot more of prunes.'

If it does your soul good to read Bunk, pure, unmitigated Bunk, then direct your optics upon the following account of Jack Dempsey's departure for Europe. Incidentally, if Jack doesn't get seasick, he is, peradventure of all doubt, the original iron man. These are excerpts from an eastern newspaper:

How does it feel to be kissed by Jack Dempsey? Three of the girls who feel on their lips the memory of those kisses Jack Dempsey gave out so generously when he sailed away on the Aquitania yesterday gave their impressions.

How were the champions' kisses? Cold, conventional or—

"Oh, very, very," said Mary Sherman, movie actress, blushing at the romantic recollection.

Florence Walton, the dancer, was also kissed, and Mary Lewis, the blonde and fair Follies girl. "Oh, very"—they all say and hide behind a barrage of shy superlatives.

Miss Lewis has a vivid recollection, too vivid for expression. "They were wonderful and very—"

"Very what?" she was insistently asked.

"Oh, you must experience one to understand. Mr. Dempsey is one of the loveliest gentlemen I know. He is a great overgrown kid. He is not at all as people think.

And Florence Walton confessed.

"He kissed me like a big brother. Really, like a big brother. I was at the pier to see Miss Baker off and Mrs. Peter Cooper Hewitt, who is a friend of mine, and then I saw Dempsey. He said I must kiss him goodby, because he was scared to death he was going to be seasick.

"He took me in his arms and kissed me like a big brother. We are just friends. He didn't mean anything by his kisses. He must have kissed a dozen girl friends. Dempsey is just a big boy, and he is lonely."

How inspiring as example. While daughter is learning music, the rest of the family learns fortitude.

SHE WOULD BE A RECLUSE.

(Book Notes.)

"To be a recluse like Emily Dickinson" was the childhood ambition of Katherine Morse. She writes: "My family had a dreadful time with me when I was growing up because I wanted to be a recluse like Emily Dickinson. Born and brought up in Amherst, from childhood I had been acquainted with legends of her. To be sure she was dead before I was born, but I remember as a small child being sent with an older brother to carry a note to her sister, 'Miss Lavinia.' It was an invitation to take Thanksgiving dinner with our family. I remember the little old lady like a gentle whimsical ghost peering at us from the crack of the barely opened front door. She must decline, she said, 'But when your father is saying grace, look at the centerpiece. My spirit will be there, right in the middle of the table.' This fancy wherein Miss Lavinia's spirit somehow took on the shape and semblance of a mince pie intrigued my infant imagination enormously.

"But all the Dickinsons were like that; they never said or did anything in the way that other people said or did things. Today my chief treasure is an unpublished manuscript poem by Emily Dickinson, two lines long, penciled on a tiny scrap of paper."

It is plain that Miss Morse has gone far since the days when she longed to be a recluse, for she says, "I have a publicity scheme all my own, which is to load a pushcart with books and peddle them—suitably placarded—all out the city, thus eliminating the middleman's profit."

Centenarian Gives Views of Modern Girl

Mrs. William Rothschild of Omaha, mother of L. J. Herzog of Lincoln, celebrated her one hundreth birthday Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs Alexander Pollack, of Omaha. With her were her children, nine in all, grand children and great grand children and during the early afternoon and evening hours a large number of friends and relatives called.

Mrs. Rothschild has known many young girls in her eventful life and she does not approve of the flapper of today. She compares the girl of today with the girl of yesterday who dressed more quietly, learned to cook, bake and sew and enjoyed simple pleasures.

Mrs. Rothschild in speaking of the modern girl said:

"I do not approve of the modern girl. I mean those girls who wear short skirts and decollete blouses, roll their stockings, bob their hair and paint and rouge their faces. If the girls of my time had dressed like the present girls do, they would have been ostracized from society. Dress in my time was much more modest than it is today.

"Then we wore pretty silk frocks on Sunday with less elaborate gowns made of lawns and percales, on weekdays. I do not approve of short sleeves. My gowns all had long sleeves and long skirts.

"Children of the present age do not show enough respect to their parents. Present day parents are much to blame for this failing, because they do not demand respect from their children. In my day parents demanded and received respect.

"The girls of the present day are not properly educated for wifehood. Few girls can cook, bake and sew. In my day every girl, whether rich or poor, was taught to cook, sew and bake. Not enough attention is paid these days to home training. After all, that is really necessary in every girl's education.

"Girls have too much freedom in the present day. They have too much time in which they are allowed to do anything they please. It is during this leisure time they get into mischief and do foolish things. In my day girls helped with the housework. They had no time to go about as many do now.

"We never went shopping in my girlhood without our mothers. Now girls as young as 12 years shop alone. I don't approve of giving girls this unlimited freedom.

"All girls should know how to sew and make clothes. Few of this age can do so. As soon as we were old enough to know what needles were the girls of my day were taught to sew and make clothes.

"We never went driving in my girlhood without a companion. We never attended a country dance or social affair, without a chaperon. I think girls should be chaperoned."

University Notes

The Nebraska section of the National Electrical Light association, at the invitation of the college of engineering, will meet at the university Thursday and Friday, April 20, 21. The organization and enrollment meeting will occur at the Lincoln hotel, Thursday morning.

About seventy-five members of the association are expected to attend the meetings. Dean Ferguson urges all electrical and mechanical students to be present at as many of the gatherings as possible.

The visitors will inspect the engineering lab oratories at 1:30 p. m. Thursday. Following this, a formal program will be held in room 206, in Mechanical Engineering building. The program continues on Friday with a forenoon meeting at the hotel, and an afternoon meeting at the agricultural college campus.

Commenting on the meetings, Dean Ferguson said, "It is not often that students have so good an opportunity as this to hear discussions by men in the industry. It is a distinct privilege of which I urge all engineering students to avail themselves."

The Nebraska Student Council has accepted the offer of the Mid-West Student conference to become member of that organization and will send its first delegate to Louisville, Ky., where the conference will be held this year. The student council expects Nebraska to derive many benefits from the organization and believes that it will make the council a more active body on the campus.

An "All Barb Smoker" for the non-fraternity men of the university is being planned for the near future by the committee of twenty-five. This committee which was active in the recent election has planned several social events with the object in view of getting the barb members of the school acquainted with each other for the mutual benefit of all non-fraternity men and women.

"Manufacturing is the outcome of Engineering," said Professor C. A. Sjogren, before the freshmen engineer last Monday afternoon at the orientation lecture.

"The engineer deals with progress; he is primarily a progress maker, he puts new things on the market and puts into operation new principles and ideas.

Professor Sjogren showed how our present industrial systems had originated. He traced it through from the Feudal System where men were bound to work for the landlords who in return gave them their keep, up to the present industrial system.

Miss Emily Wanek, pupil of Mrs. Watson, will give a graduation recital on the piano April the 26th in the art gallery.

More than 300 pictures showing the members of the teams that participated in the recent state basket ball tourney were printed last week for distribution over the state. The board of control is in charge of sending the pictures to the various schools, which will place them in their auditoriums.

Various groups from the city schools representing the vocational educational work visited at the university Thursday. They included in their journey the inspection of the museum, library, conservational survey division and other points interested.

E. F. Schramm has been attending a convention of students at Pittsburgh, where he spent several days, returning Monday. He visited a number of educational institutions on the trip.

Dr. Earl A. Byers, who received his degree of doctor of philosophy at the University of Nebraska in 1920 has been made professor of philosophy, at an attractive salary, at Roanoke college, Salem, Virginia, where he has been teaching the past two years. Dr. Byers entered the University of Nebraska from theological training; while here he specialized in the department of philosophy, and, as a graduate student, made many friends who are glad to hear of his success. He expects to visit European countries and kinsfolk during the coming summer.

The Chadron Normal trio, consisting of Miss Vivian Baird, J. Yandley and Roy Petersen will play at a musical convocation to be held 11 a. m. April the 18th in the art gallery. This trio is coming to Lincoln in connection with the annual convention of the Nebraska music teachers' association. The convocation is to be held in the art gallery because the Temple will be occupied by the convention.

On Tuesday, April the 25th, Dr. Henry F. Cope will speak to students of the university on the subject "The Challenge of Democracy." Dr. Cope is general secretary of the religious education association of America, with offices at Chicago. Considerable local interest is being manifested in this address.

The university has had quite close connection with the planning made with certain studies preparatory to the leasing of the contract for the new capitol. Professor Cordra directed the tests which determined the structure of the subsoil and bed rock and gave the thicknesses of the various divisions and Professor Mickey directed all of the details made in testing the bearing capacity of the soil and bed rock. Professor H. B. Alexander has assisted in planning and selecting the various inscriptions which will adorn the structure.

LETTERS OF LOUISE I. GUINEY.

(The Bookman.)

The delightful personality of Louise Imogen Guiney is revealed in her letters to Dora Sigerson (Mrs. Clement K. Shorter) and to Mrs. Shorter. Here is an extract from one written Dec. 28, 1895:

"What makes you think, most fastidious child, that I don't like your flames? I have no point of view but yours, or that I conceive to be yours. I could not conceive, at first, that you cared a penny for him; therefore I growled at your promise to him; since then, I am perfectly convinced you do care for him, and I withdraw my mistakable opposition. Of course, I would rather see you 'totty' (thank Frances Thompson for the delicious comic word!) with personal affection for some one before you went to the length of marrying him; and 'totty,' Dora adores, you are not. In fact Mr. Shorter has astonishing meekness and patience with you. O baggage! He is good enough to you to earn your regard, at any rate. I won't dare think of any more pros and cons, but bless you, undo with anxious eye follow your doings."

NOT MANY SUCH.

(Atlantic Monthly.)

As to the sixteenth century and Shakespeare, they have for some years had good going. John Jay Chapman, in his "Glance Toward Shakespeare," quotes the following significant endorsement of that popular playwright. A retired Boston business man, advised to read Shakespeare's collected works, did so diligently, and then broke a lifelong habit of restraint, threw discretion to the winds, and remarked heartily: "That is a great book, sir, an extraordinary book! Why, sir, there are not ten men in Boston who could have written it!"

Party In N. Y. For Miss Gettys

Miss Frances Gettys of Lincoln was entertained recently at a box party at the Lyceum theater in New York City when Irene Bordoni was presented in the "French Doll." Mrs. Davidson, sister of Daniel Frohman, gave the party. Other guests were Mrs. Fritz Kreisler, Julia Arthur, Viola Allen and Mlle. Cavallini. Miss Gettys is studing voice in New York City with Mme. Valeri and is soprano soloist at the Tompe Avenue Presbyterian church, Brooklyn.

Chadron Normal

The preliminary debate for the Chadron-Wayne contest was given in chapel on Friday morning. The question is: Resolved, that the principal of the closed shop is justifiable. The winners who will represent the Chadron Normal in the Chadron-Wayne debate are: Verden Drummond, John Castek, Holden Smith, and Tom Allington. Miss Boyer has put forth untiring efforts to make the debate the great success which it has proved to be, and the results of her coaching are very gratifying. The students and faculty are expecting great things from those who will represent the school in the final contest.

The faculty members of the music department and LeRoy North, student in piano, will leave this week-end for Lincoln where they will appear on the program at the Nebraska Music Teachers' association and at convocation at the university. The trio will play, Tuesday, in the ball room of the Lincoln hotel when they will present the trio for violin, cello, and piano composed by Henlot Levy. The trio will also play this as one of their numbers on the recital program Thursday evening. This is the sixth annual convention of the association, and the third on the program for which the faculty have appeared. Mr. North will take part in the student contest during the association.

Boys cooking classes are no longer a novelty at Chadron. During the last semester Miss Ruth Delzell head of the domestic science department, conducted a boys' class in camp cookery — popularly called by the boys the "Kamp Kookery Klass." The ten young men who were enrolled enjoyed the work and found it to be of much practical value to them. The boys learned the value of different foods what kinds of foods to take on a camping trip in order to insure wholesome meals, and how to secure a balanced ration. The best methods of packing food for a trip were also learned. In general, the particular needs of the camper were taken into consideration.

The district contest held at Bridgeport, last Friday, was one of unusual interest and merit. Twelve students appeared in each section of the contest and kept the judges busy till 1:40 a. m., Saturday, grading their work. Professor Noyer of Kearney Normal, Superintendent Ray of Torrington, Wyo., and Miss Clark of our faculty, were the judges. Miss Clark reports it as one of the most interesting contests she has ever been called upon to judge. The winners in the oratorical division of the contest were Scottsbluff, first honors, and Mullen, second; in dramatic division, Sidney first, and Bridgeport, second; in the humorous section, Sidney first, and Alliance, second.

President Elliott served as judge in the district contest at Hot Springs, South Dakota, last Friday at which the towns of the Black Hills were represented. Lead won first place in the declamatory section and Sturgis second in the oratorical. Belle Fourche took first honors in the oratorical and second in the declamatory section. President Elliott reports that it was a very fine contest and a credit to the section of South Dakota which was represented there.

The fifth annual concert of the Normal orchestra was given Monday evening, to a good house. The members were assisted by Professors Peterson and Greenslit on the violin and trombone and LeRoy North in the piano. Miss Irma Stockdale '21 played the French horn with the orchestra.

The students always look forward to the chapel period each week when it is given over usually to the enjoyment of fine music. On Wednesday, the trio played the Ave Maria by Bach-Gounod, and the Largo by Handel. Both were very well rendered.

On Thursday evening Reva Dotslow appeared in piano recital before a large and appreciative audience. She was assisted by Margaret Meer, mezzo-soprano, and LeRoy North, accompanist.

COLLEGE VIEW NOTES

Editor I. W. Evans is manager of the newly organized ball club of College View. The team has been admitted as a member of the Lincoln City league, but is not sure yet whether it will be placed in the class A league or class B. Mr. Evans is confident that he can develop an exceptionally strong team that will put the local suburb on the baseball map this summer.

The new State Oil filling station between 12th and 13th streets on L street is rapidly taking form.

The town ball club and a nine from the college have been pitted against each other in two games, each winning a game. The tie will be played off Sunday afternoon. Herb Nelson has been pitching for the college boys and Arthur Rayburn for the town team.

Miss Vesta Jensen is home from Loma Linda, Cal., where she has been during the winter.

Professor Carl C. Engel has been elected director of the music department at the college. Mrs. Marie Anderson will continue as piano instructor and Miss Estelle Richnhoff will have charge of the vocal work.

Professor H. U. Stevens, of Buenos Aires, South America is visiting in the village. Professor Stevens has charge of the educational work in the South American division conference. He is a graduate of Union college, and at one time was head of the science department here. He is on his way to San Francisco to attend the general conference.

Elder M. L. Andreasen has been chosen by the college senior class to deliver the baccalaureate sermon at the close of school and President Morrison will give the commencement address.

President H. A. Morrison and Mrs. Morrison entertained the members of the college senior class at their home last Saturday night. Ice cream was served in victory blue and silver gray colors, representing the colors of the class.

R. T. Emery is in Boulder, Colo., on conference business.

R. A. Hart, of Battle Creek, Mich. has been visiting at the home of his brother, Elder J. S. Hart.

Clarence Thompson and family are preparing to move onto a farm near Denver, Colo.

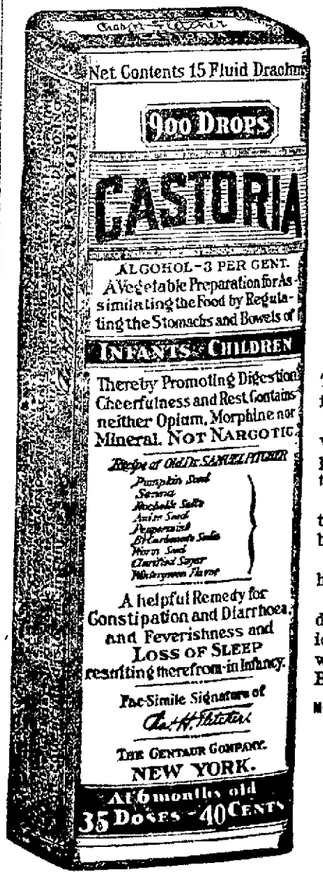

Miss Ruth Johns and Miss Virginia Rees are expecting to teach at the Inter-Mountain Academy, Grand Valley, Colo., next year.

Care and Responsibility.

THE responsibility attached to the preparing of a remedy for infants and children is undoubtedly greater than that imposed upon the manufacturer of remedies for adults whose system is sufficiently strong to counteract, for a time at least, any injurious drug. It is well to observe that Castoria is prepared today, as it has been for the past 40 years, under the personal supervision of Mr. Chas. H. Fletcher.

What have makers of imitations and substitutes at stake? What are their responsibilities? To whom are they answerable? They spring up today, scatter their nefarious wares broadcast, and disappear tomorrow.

Could each mother see the painstaking care with which the prescription for Fletcher's Castoria is prepared: could they read the innumerable testimonials from grateful mothers, they would never listen to the subtle pleadings and false arguments of those who would offer an imitation of, or substitute for, the tried and true Fletcher's Castoria.

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

A Word About Truth.

"Great is Truth, and mighty above all things." So says the Old Testament, yet it is equaliy true to-day. Truth shows no favors, fears no enemies.

From the inception of Fletcher's Castoria, Truth has been the watchword, and to the conscientious adherence to this motto in the preparation of Fletcher's Castoria as well as in its advertising is due the secret of its popular demand.

All imitations, all substitutes, all just-as-good preparations lack the element of Truth, lack the righteousness of being, lack all semblance even in the words of those who would deceive.

And you! Mothers, mothers with the fate of the World in your hands, can you be deceived? Certainly not.

Fletcher's Castoria is prepared for Infants and Children. It is distinctly a remedy for the little-ones. The BABY'S need for a medicine to take the place of Castor Oil, Paregoric and Soothing Syrups was the sole thought that led to its discovery. Never try to correct BABY'S troubles with a medicine that you would use for yourself.

Her Own Way

CHAPTER LXXXV.

Horror seized the girl as rapidly she reviewed her acquaintance with the man who had posed as her cousin.

"Oh, Uncle! Uncle!" she exclaimed, springing to her feet. "It is even worse than you think! Please listen while I try to tell you all about it."

"All about it?" Daniel Sloane repeated. "I do not understand what you mean. What do you know about it?"

"More than you have an idea of!" she declared, her voice breaking oddly.

Her uncle rose, and putting his arm about her, drew her close to him.

"Hush, child!" he warned. "You are growing hysterical. Your nerves must be in very bad shape if you lose your self-control in this way."

The gentle reproof had the effect of bringing the agitated creature to an appreciation of the necessity of regaining her self-possession. The habit of years of obedience to her uncle's commands re-asserted itself.

"Excuse me!" she faltered. "But it is all so dreadful—and I have been so horrified by what you have told me—and of what I have seen of the man who stole from Dan."

She paused. Her companion's face grew a shade paler.

"What have you seen of him?" he questioned sharply. "What do you know about the scoundrel? Where did you ever meet him?"

But when she started to answer him, he interrupted her.

"Wait!" he exclaimed.

Crossing the room, he unlocked a small case that stood on a table, and, a moment later, returned with a glass of liquor in one hand, a pitcher of water in the other.

"Drink this," he ordered. "It will brace you and help you control yourself."

Dumbly she obeyed him.

A Good Medicine.

The burning liquid brought the tears to her eyes, but it steadied her nerves and increased her self-confidence. Even in this moment of excitement it seemed strange that her uncle should be offering her whisky.

"It is good medicine at times," he remarked now. "If people only used it when they needed it they would never abuse it.

"Sit down and tell me slowly, and as much in detail as you wish, all that you know about the man who blackened our boy's name."

She began the tale falteringly. Then, as the whisky warmed her chilled frame, she found speech easier.

She told of the night she had followed her uncle from the restaurant and, mistaking another man for him, called to him; how the man had turned, showing her a face she had never seen before.

Then, carefully and truthfully, she repeated to the listener the facts connected with her further acquaintance with the person who had impersonated her cousin.

She made no reference to the incident of the roses. That she omitted instinctively.

But she did tell how the stranger had paid her taxi bill at the door of the theatre. Her uncle asked a single question.

"Where was the man whose guest you were supposed to be?"

She averted her eyes as she replied:

"He was detained by a professional engagement, but he arrived a few minutes after I did," she said briefly.

"I see," was the curt comment. "Go ahead with what you were saying."

When she reached the point in her story where she must speak of the money she had given the young man, she hesitated.

"Go on, my dear," her uncle urged very gently, as if she had been a little child. "Tell me all about it. Do not imagine that I shall blame you for anything."

One Vital Question.

"I will try to tell it," she murmured, "even though it will show you how wrong and indiscreet I have been. But I meant to do the right thing."

Daniel Sloane listened without further speech until the end of the recital. When she explained how the stranger had gone away without setting his lodging-house bill, Daniel Sloane gazed at her inquiringly, but asked no question. She answered as if he had spoken.

"I paid Mrs. Ovington what he owed her. You see—I believed he was my cousin."

"You did exactly right," her uncle approved. "He deliberately stole from a poor young girl—just as he had stolen from a dead man who could not defend his name. It is what one would expect from him. Is that all the story, Helen?"

She nodded.

"There is one more question I must ask you, child. Do not be angry with me. You referred to this man's pleasing manner. You did not—I mean, Helen—you did not find yourself getting fond of him—did you?"

"Oh no!" she interrupted him vehemently. "I felt an aversion for him in spite of my efforts to be fair to him. I hated to meet him. I dreaded talking with him. I thought I was wrong in this. Now I know it was intuition."

"Yes," the elderly man said softly. "And your intuitions are to be trusted, dear child. I see that now—and I thank Heaven that I can see it before it is too late."

Two Men Hurt In Train Wreck Near Danville

DANVILLE, Ill., April 17.—Two men were injured, one perhaps fatally, when a Big Four mail and express train running from Indianapolis to Peoria was wrecked near Foster, Ind., early today. A washout caused the wreck.

Charles Watts, of Indianapolis fireman on the train, was probably fatally hurt, and William Auton of Urbana, Ill., the engineer, was seriously injured.

Traffic on the road will be blocked for several hours.

Samuel Hill With Joffre On His Tour

Many people have asked who was the dignified white-haired man with a silk hat who rode with Marshal Joffre in the parade Saturday. He was Samuel Hill, Seattle multimillionaire and son-in-law of the late J. J. Hill, former Burlington president. However, he is not related to the Hill family of railroad fame other than by marriage.

Marshal Joffre is Mr. Hill's guest of a trip from Shanghai to Paris, via the United States, and Mr. Hill is paying all expenses of the trip. He is well known in business circles on the west coast and is a member of the boards of directors of many large corporations. He has traveled extensively and speaks French as fluently as English.

Mr. Hill is very active in the campaign for better highways in the west and has contributed liberally to the Columbian Highway project. Burlington officials said he was avoiding publicity as much as possible on his trip through the United States with Marshal Joffre.

Syracuse is the latest city to organize a symphony orchestra. Its first concert, under the direction of Dr. William Derwald, on January 21, was a great success. An audience of some 3,000 attended, filling the Keith threatre, where it was given, the management courteously offering its use free of charge, not only this, but also for subsequent concerts of the organization.

AWARD HONORS IN SCHOLARSHIP

Members of Phi Kappa Phi Announced at Wesleyan University.

Thirteen Members of Senior Class Chosen at Monday Convocation.

At a convocation held at Nebraska Wesleyan university Monday morning, announcement was made of thirteen seniors elected to Phi Kappa Phi, honorary scholastic fraternity.

Following are the members:

Katherine Boeye, Aksel Olsen, Harold Smith, Ruth Simpson, Gertrude Stroebel, Miriam Albertson, Ruth Mahood, Deryl Morgan, Seattle Stowater, Margaret Patoe, Ethel Schaible, Irma Dragoo and Thomas Quincy Harrison.

The president of the local chapter is Professor May Hopper. Miss Dr. Oscar Lowe, associate pastor of Grace M. E. church, addressed the convocation on "The Stewardship of Life." In brief, Dr. Lowe said that there are "better things in life than chasing the almighty dollar."

Phi Kappa Phi was founded in 1897 and is dedicated to the unity and democracy of education. The society is open to all graduates and under-graduates of all departments of American universities and colleges. The prime object of the society is to emphasize scholarship and the thought of college students, and to stimulate mental achievement by the prize of membership.

The first one-fourth of all students who complete 150 hours at the close of the winter quarter of their senior year, are eligible for membership in the Nebraska Wesleyan chapter. Phi Kappa Phi cannot exceed one-sixth of the membership of the senior class. The initiation ceremony and annual address will be features of commencement week.

CROWDS ATTEND CHURCHES EASTER

Special Services Bring Out Immense Throngs on Perfect Day.

Many New Members Are Taken In — Musical Programs Big Feature.

Special Easter services at the churches on a perfect Easter day brought out immense crowds at morning, afternoon and evening services in Lincoln. Large numbers of new members were take into the churches. The Presbyterian churches totaled 158 new members, seventeen at Westminster University church, twenty-six at the Second church, fifty-one at the First church and sixty-four at Westminster church. Sixty-two members were received in Grace Methodist church.

St. Paul Methodist church was packed to the doors for the special musical service in the evening. "Christ the Victor" was rendered by a chorus with special soloists and orchestral accompaniment. The University School of Music orchestra under the direction of Carl Steckelburg gave the second part of the program. Howard Kirkpatrick directed the singing.

The morning service at St. Paul was attended by an audience of twenty-one or twenty-two hundred, the largest that ever attended a morning service. Dr. Walter Aitken's sermon was "An Easter Doxology."

Such large crowds came to the morning service at the First Presbyterian church that many were turned away. Dr. B. M. Nyce delivered a sermon on "They Found." Music was furnished by the quartet. In the evening there was a special musical program. Mrs. Edith Burlingim Ross was organist.

A choir of seventy-five voices gave a program for a vesper service at Plymouth Congregational church at 4:30 in the afternoon. Henry Cox of Omaha gave a violin program and excerpts from Handel's "Messiah" were rendered by the chorus with special solo parts. There was also a special morning service with a large attendance. Dr. W. W. Bolt's sermon was on "Easter's Promise."

The First Congregational church was unable to accommodate the crowd that came to hear Hugo Grimm's "The Great Miracle" rendered by a choir of forty-three voices under the direction of Mrs. Carrie B. Raymond. Mrs. Raymond was at the organ and Miss Anne Stuart at the piano.

Record Breaking Attendance.

Sixty-five young people came to the First Baptist church at 7 o'clock for a sunrise prayer service. The morning service had the largest attendance in the history of the church. A sacred concert was given in the evening under the direction of Dr. J. M. Mayhew.

Easter services at the Church of the Holy Trinity began with a special communion at 7:30 in the morning. A special musical program was given at 11 o'clock and Dr. S. Mills Hayes gave a sermon on "The Racial Consciousness of the Risen Christ." The church school Easter service was held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Large attendances marked all the services.

Mt. Moriah Commandery No. 4 Knights Templar, were guests of the First Christian church at the morning service. Communion and preaching services were held at that time. Dr. A. D. Harmon, of Cotner college, preached on "If a Man Dies Shall He Live Again."

From 5 to 7 Easter morning people in various parts of the city were awakened by the song "Christ Arose" coming through the clear morning air. It was sung by the Vesper choir of the University Y. W. C. A., which went to all the sorority houses and girls' dormitories, clad in vestments, singing as they walked.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, April 17.

Numerous confused price changes accompanied today's record operations in the stock market, but the trend among popular issues was again mainly upward. Sales approximated 2,000,000 shares.

On the stock exchange the week opened with a continuance of the recent active speculative buying. Commission houses were prominent in the movement, which soon registered general advances over last Saturday's final quotations. Oils and rails were in the forefront with coppers. Sinclair, Royal Dutch, Middle States and Standard Oil of New York, Anaconda, Utah, Atchison, Northern Pacific and Reading were higher by fractions to 1 point. Steels and equipments were relatively backward but became buoyant within the first half hour, American Car rising almost 3 points.

On the business of the forenoon, roughly estimated at 1,000,000 shares, the full session promised to surpass all records in point of activity for at least two years. Further momentum was given to the early advance by free offerings of call money, which dropped from 4 to 3½ per cent soon after 11 o'clock. Oils continued to overshadow the list, but before noon they were superseded to a considerable extent by Chino and Utah Coppers and Canadian Pacific, St. Paul and Chesapeake & Ohio. Shippings also strengthened, but motors and equipments reacted moderately to realizing sales.

Oils and steels bore the burden of the noon reaction, declining 1 to 4 points. The list showed strong recuperative qualities, however, most losses being largely recorded under lead of investment rails at 1 o'clock. Sales to that period approximated 1,400,000 shares.

Rails of the Pacific, granger and coal divisions strengthened their positions later and industrials made additional recoveries from the midday reaction. The closing was irregular.

GRAIN MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 17.

WHEAT—In sharp contrast with an abrupt advance of 9 cents a bushel on Saturday, the wheat market today kept within moderate bounds during the early trading. The tendency of prices was still of a character to indicate that the struggle was to be a two-sided one for at least the time being. The chief influence was the question whether sufficient wheat would be on hand in Chicago to settle contracts for delivery during May and the sharpness of Saturday's advance caused friends of higher prices to exercise unusual caution. Opening prices, which varied from ¼c decline to 1c advance, for the market must be taken as a whole, with May $1.42@1.43½ and July $1.26½@1.26¾, were followed by gains of 3 cents in some cases, but then a setback to about the initial range.

Profit taking on the part of owners of wheat set in today on the board of trade and caused prices to fall during the final dealings. Export inquiry was slack and so also was the call for wheat for milling purposes. There was an unsettled finish at ¾ to 2½c net decline, with May $1.40½@1.40⅝ and July $1.24⅝@1.25.

CORN—Corn and oats were lifted in value by the strength of wheat. After opening ¼ to ⅝c higher July 65¼@65½c, the corn market eased off a little but hardened again later.

Toward the last the corn market acted in sympathy with the weakness of wheat. The closing was easy, ½ to ⅝c net lower, July 64¾@64⅞c.

OATS—Oats started ¼ to ½c higher, July 41⅛@41½c, and then made slight further upturns.

PROVISIONS—Higher quotations on hogs and grain helped to lift the price of provisions.

GRAIN MARKET

Substantial advances occurred in all wheat prices last week, the May delivery making a spectacular rise yesterday, due to the sudden development of a panic among recent short sellers, and later months displaying moderate strength as a result of continued unfavorable crop comment from the Southwest and export buying for July and August delivery, says the Kansas City Star. The September delivery and the better grades of carlots sold at new high levels for the season and other prices were within a few cents of the top prices reached in February. Most of the advance occurred in yesterday's short session, though the market had maintained a firm tone early in the week also.

Closing prices yesterday were up about 10 cents for May and 5½ to 6 cents for July and September. Until yesterday the market responded mainly to developments of a bullish character pertaining to new crop conditions. May showing the tendency to lag that has been evident for several weeks, while later months led in the advance.

Chicago Wheat Market Congested.

Reports were current that large amounts of May wheat had been absorbed by interests, supposed to be exporters, who would want delivery. Figures mentioned were doubtless exaggerated, but were so large as to cause extreme concern among recent speculative sellers. The extent of the buying was taken as an indication that the diminishing premium for May wheat the past few weeks, as compared with July, and the indifferent demand for carlots, had prompted much larger. For nearly a month the current demand for wheat has been dull from both millers and exporters, the premium for May dropping from 17 cents to less than 6 cents in Kansas City and from 20 cents to 10 cents in Chicago. The reports yesterday that exporters would want delivery on large amounts were taken with a good deal of reservation by the trade, but they served to disturb shorts.

Large Stocks of Wheat Here.

Kansas City elevators still have a record amount of wheat for this million bushels, for which there is at present a limited outlet. Much of the grain carries old billing and is not up to the best milling requirements. The visible supply last Monday contained 34,165,000 bushels, nearly twice as much as a year ago, though about 1 0million bushels less than two years ago. The decrease for several weeks has been about a normal rate.

The condition of winter wheat in the states of big production in the southwest varies widely. In Central and Western Kansas and parts of Oklahoma and northern Texas the stand is thin and the plant generally lacks vitality as a result of poor germination, resulting from the fall and winter drought. Elsewhere the abundant spring rains and mild temperatures have resulted in a satisfactory early growth and prospects are that the crop will enter early summer in good condition. The extent of the abondoned area in the three states is unknown, but it will be much larger than usual. Probably at least 3 million acres will be abandoned in these three states.

Speculative attention has been largely centered on the crop losses in western Kansas and like interest has been shown in an extensive winter wheat area which now has a promising prospect. A careful survey of the Kansas situation last week by a Kansas City grain man, Allen Logan, whose crop estimates are among the most intelligent that are put out, lead to an estimate of 122 3-4 million bushels as the prospective crop of that state, which is considerably in excess of most guesses, and only 7 million bushels less than the 1921 harvest. The weather has been favorable in the Missouri valley and eastward, and the present indications are that the winter wheat crop will be substantially larger than the government's April forecast.

Spring Wheat Sowing Delayed.

Spring wheat seeding is getting under way slowly, due to too much rain, and with the season about ten days to two weeks later than last year conditions are not regarded as favorable for an increased acreage though it is too early to make an estimate.

Foreigners Buy New Wheat.

Export demand for wheat from this country was limited almost entirely to new crop wheat for July and August shipment, chiefly the latter month. Most of the demand came from England and Germany. Several million bushels were reported sold for shipment via Montreal, and there was further activity via the Gulf. In the past two or three weeks probably 2 or 3 million bushels have been sold from the latter positions by several of the larger local concerns. Prices at seaports relative to the interior were somewhat firmer in all positions last week.

Foreign buyers displayed little or no interest in offerings of wheat for nearby delivery and transactions were limited to occasional small lots of short interests. No demand of importance is expected at the Gulf in the near future, as liberal amounts of Canadian wheat will be available as soon as navigation opens in the next few days. Argentine cables reported an improved export demand for wheat last week at firmer prices.

Shipments of wheat and flour from the United States and Canada last week, according to Bradstreet's were moderate, 4,955,000 bushels, mostly from Canada, compared with 5,870,000 bushels the preceding week and 6,895,000 bushels a year ago.

Exports of wheat from Argentina last week were 2,763,000 bushels, a little more than half as much as in the preceding week and 1,675,000 bushels more than a year ago. The total for the season is nearly three times as much as in the corresponding time last year.

Receipts About Half Last Year's.

Receipts of wheat at the principal markets continued moderate last week, 1,864 cars, 4 per cent less than in the preceding week and 48 per cent less than a year ago. No important change is expected this week. Shipments to Chicago from the terminals for May delivery caused a moderate increase in receipts there.

Demand for moderate carlot offerings was only fair and, with the exception of an occasional car of choice milling wheat, prices did not respond to the upturn in futures until Saturday, when there was a strong rise. The lower grades which made up the bulk of the receipts were not especially wanted. Compared with a week ago, hard wheat was up to 6 to 8 cents, choice dark hard selling as high as $1.55. Red wheat advanced 4 to 8 cents.

Decreasing Flour Production.

Demand for our continued dull and mills in nearly all parts of the country reduced their output. Buyers generally are said to have small stocks on hand and show little disposition to contract for more than immediate requirements, although the wheat market has not been particularly unsettled and the course of prices has been upward. Demand for mill feed has been good at firm prices.

Kansas City mills made 77,400 barrels of flour last week, a decrease of 5,600 barrels from the preceding week and 7,700 barrels more than in the corresponding week a year ago. The output represented 68 per cent of capacity.

Moderate Advance In Corn.

Corn futures displayed a firm tone all week, chiefly as a result of a further reduction in receipts, a fair export demand and continued liberal clearances. Closing prices Saturday were up 2¼ to 8¼ cents.

Export sales were estimated at 3,000,000 bushels, most of which was reported early in the week. Holland and Germany were said to be the principal buyers.

Shipments from the United States were 3,235,000 bushels, compared with 4,401,000 bushels the preceding week and 1,167,000 bushels a year ago.

The four principal markets received 1,162 cars of corn last week, 15 per cent less than in the preceding week and slightly more than a year ago. Most of the decrease was at Chicago.

White Eagle Pays Visit to Governor's Office

White Eagle, a deaf Indian poet of the Sioux tribe, on his way home to Gillette, Wyo., from an eastern trip, called at Governor McKelvie's office Monday forenoon, while stopping off in Lincoln. The governor was not there, but he obtained a letter from Mr. McKelvie's secretary to help him on his way through Nebraska.

White Eagle is traveling by rail, though he had expected to make the journey from Omaha westward on horseback. A year ago he rode his pony, Red Bird, 900 miles from Hardin, Mont., to Omaha in twenty-four days and won a medal from the chamber of commerce at the former place. When he went east he left the pony with a farmer near Omaha. On his return, the farmer had a bill of $75 against him for the animal's feed. The children in the family had taken quite a liking to the horse, and so White Eagle decided to leave it with them rather than pay the bill.

"I don't know whether I ought to have left the pony behind, or not," he said by means of pencil and paper to a Star representative. "What do you think about it?"

The Indian, who has some white blood, pays the expenses of his travels by selling volumes of his poetry en route. He is helping to advertise the Custer Battlefield highway through Montana.

Taylor Declines to Join Republicans

W. L. Taylor of Merna has declined an invitation from W. L. Gaston, deputy secretary of state, to join the republican party. Gaston wrote him last week, after Taylor had broken out in the press denouncing J. H. Edmisten, Arthur Wray, J. N. Norton, and others concerned in the plan to fuse democrats and progressives behind one state ticket.

"Our house is a little mussed up right now, but things will be all right in a few days," says Taylor, who in turn requests Gaston to affiliate with the new party. He thinks the fusion advocates are going to have trouble getting the necessary fifty per cent of signers for Norton and Wray as candidates on the progressive ticket.

"Everything is in awful shape—education, religion, business, politics," Taylor writes. "Does anybody know where we are going?"

Drew $50 Fine.—E. Sherman, grocer at 225 North Twelfth street, was fined $50 and costs in police court Monday morning after he had entered a plea of guilty to the charge of selling intoxicating liquor. He paid the bill, amounting to $54.70. Sherman was arrested Saturday evening after he had, the officers say, sold three bottles of lemon extract to Ernest Eisler. It was stated Sherman had been several times warned by a brother of Eisler not to sell the latter anything, but that he disregarded the warning. He was arrested by Officers Schneibel and Longstreth.

Charge of Speeding.—Melvin Burges, a young man arrested Saturday evening by Officer Rymer and charged with speeding, pleaded guilty in police court Monday morning and paid a fine of $5 and costs.

Files Tax Notice.—The internal revenue department has filed in the office of the clerk of the United States district court a notice of a special tax lien for $4,478.74 against the property of William W. Wooley of Cheney. The department says that Mr. Wooley operated for seven months during the year 1922 as an illicit distiller and retail liquor dealer and thereby became indebted to the government in the amount of the lien.

Wife Asks Divorce.—Adda Furrier filed a petition in district court here Monday morning for divorce from Daniel Furrier. They were married in Butte August 15, 1920, and separated a year later. Mrs. Furrier states that she has supported herself since their separation. She asks restoration of her maiden name of Ewan.

Swanson Going to Valentine.—Land Commissioner Swanson will visit Valentine this week to hold an auction sale of forfeited leases on state school lands. He will also look after rome expired leases in Cherry county.

GRIFFITH FLAYS PACT OPPONENTS

Declares He Will Not Yield to Irish Black and Tans.

Divides Honors With General McKeown When He Spoke at Sligo Sunday.

(Associated Press.)

DUBLIN, April 17.—Dublin got its first reports today of the address delivered at Sligo, yesterday by Arthur Griffith, president of the dail eireann. Communications with Sligo were cut off during the meeting.

According to accounts, Mr. Griffith said those who opposed the Free State treaty had raised the issue as to whether the Irish people had a right to decide for themselves their own destiny. Those who fought for liberty against the British black and tans were not going to yield to the Irish black and tans, he declared.

Mr. Griffith was reported as saying the Irish people had a perfect right to reject the treaty but that nobody had a right to say that the people should not decide for themselves, whether they would or would not have the treaty. He was not going to surrender that right to a junta had revolvers in their hands.

General McKeown who has charge of Free State forces in Sligo, was largely instrumental in enabling the meeting to be held.

Two Divide Honors.
(By Courier to Dublin.)

SLIGO, Ireland, April 17.—Major Gen. McKeown whose chivalry has made him widely known, the "divided honors with Arthur Griffith as the hero of yesterday's trial of strength here in which the president of the dail eireann and his supported of the Free State treaty, won a bloodless victory.

It was largely General McKeown's utter disregard of his own danger that saved the day for the Free Staters. Hours before Mr. Griffith came into Sligo with an escort of loyal Irish republican armp troops, the town had been barricaded against him by treaty opponents.

Garrisons of young men armed with revolvers and rifles and wearing nondescript uniforms, took up positions at windows of public buildings for what seemed to be an impending clash of arms.

The air seemed charged with ominous possibilities. So real seemed the danger of a catastrophe that the bishop of Sligo interceded for peace. General Pilkington, commander of the Third Western division of the rish Republican army who proscribed the meeting ten days ago, and who is described as a mere boy, sent a messenger during the morning seeking a compromise. But General McKeown was adamant and sent back word that the one condition on which he would meet the republic chieftain was evacuation of the commandeered buildings. Apparently General Pikington ignored this message as the town continued in a state of nervous apprehension.

Another Delay in Trial Probable

COURTHOUSE, WAUKEGAN, Ill., April 17.—Now delay of the trial of Len Small, governor of Illinois, now charged with conspiracy to embezzle, appeared this morning when the defense offered a number of suggestions which, it is claimed will materially shorten the time required for the presentation of evidence. The suggestion offered by the Small lawyers will be given consideration, it was said authoritatively, and it was declared probable that one week's delay will result, putting the day of the opening of the trial over until next Monday.

WANTS A PERMIT.

O. J. Shaw, general manager for the Lincoln Traction company has applied to the city for permission to construct and operate a gasoline filling station at Third and P streets, which is at the end of the approach to the O street viaduct.

FILES ANSWER.

The Burlington railroad filed an answer in district court here Monday morning to the injunction suit brought against it, Governor McKelvie, the state of Nebraska, the city of Lincoln, the capitol commission, the Lincoln Traction company and the state engineer by Attorney Wilbur B. Comstock and Ernest J. Sias, in which the railroad denies every material allegation in connection with the installing of the electric railroad up H street from Seventh to Fourteenth streets for the purpose of carrying material to aid in the construction of the new state capitol.

SNOW FALLS IN GAGE

(Special to The Star.)

BEATRICE, Neb., April 17.—Wet snow fell in this section of the state following a light fall of rain and hail early this morning. The weather is cold and heating plants are in operation in Beatrice homes.

trols the patents used in Bell plants throughout the country.

The original license contract for Nebraska, he said, was signed in 1882 between individuals interested in the old Nebraska Telephone Co. and the parent Bell concern. In 1906 the three Bell companies in Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota signed contracts similar to the one now in force.

Special Counsel Hugh Lamaster, Secretary Curtiss, Chief Engineer Forbes, and O. E. Johnson of the railway commission's office were present, and U. G. Powell appeared as a special accountant employed by the commission for this case.

File Reports With Stock Commissioner

Shares in the Foster Lumber Co., Lincoln, are worth $500 apiece on the market, according to a report which the corporation has filed with State Tax Commissioner Osborne. Their par value is $100. The only Nebraska stockholder in the company is S. A. Foster, who owns 59 shares.

C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln holds a single share of the United States Grain Growers stock, he being president of that organization. Nobody else in this state is a stockholder. The U. S. Grain Growers, Inc., is orgnized on a different basis from ordinary corporations, only a few shares of stock having been issued.

G. H. Cornell of Valentine possess 996 shares out of 1,000 in the Cornell Hydro-Electric Co. of that place. F. B. Ryons of Lincoln has one share and J. W. Steinmeyer of Beatrice one.

West Coast Doctor Sentenced to Pen

LOS ANGELES, April 17.—Joseph Studer, formerly a physicain of Peoria, Ill., was sentenced today in the superior court here to serve an indeterminate sentence of one to ten years in San Quentin prison.

The sentence followed Studer's conviction on a charge of manslaughter based on the death of his mother Elizabeth Studer, here last September.

RULING ON "HARD LABOR."

WASHINGTON, April 17. The supreme court of the United States today decided that no person could be imprisoned at hard labor without presentment and indictment by a grand jury, because the punishment brought the crime under the category of infamous crimes.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The area of low pressure noticed Saturday in Colorado has moved slowly eastward and is central in Michigan today but the area extends southwestward to Texas. Rain or snow has fallen in Idaho, Nevada, and the states eastward to New York, Pennsylvania and Kentucky. An area of unusually high pressure for April has appeared on the north Pacific coast and low temperature prevails throughout the Rocky mountain and western states.

GOLDEN HARVEST AWAITS DEMPSEY ON ARRIVAL IN ENGLAND

FIGHTS IN SIGHT FOR CHAMPION

London Promoters Planning to Use Dempsey in Pair of Glove Battles.

Crystal Palace Engaged and Top Price for Seats Fixed at $25.

LONDON, April 17.—The Crystal Palace arena, which seats 100,000 persons, has been engaged by a syndicate which hopes to stage two bouts during Jack Dempsey's stay in England.

George McDonald, promoter, is proposing that Dempsey undertake to finish Joe Beckett, British heavyweight champion, in six rounds and Mack Blumenfeld in four.

The seat prices will range from six shillings to five pounds sterling.

London newspapers are today filled with reports of the impending arrival of Dempsey on the liner Aquitania, due here late tonight or tomorrow.

Wireless dispatches from Dempsey say he is willing to fight Carpentier or Beckett in England.

Dempsey's Triumphal Tour.

The triumphal tour of Europe, undertaken by Jack Dempsey, has been paralleled by three other heavyweight champions of the world, but none of them ever attempted to put one half the pomp as that attached to the present invasion of the reigning little holder.

When the folks in Europe get a glimpse at Dempsey they will see a spectacle of sartorial artistry, if nothing else, and his retinue of attendants will be garbed in keeping with the pace set by their leader. Suits for every occasion, and some for unforeseen events, overcoats of varied hues, pink spats, etc., are among the chief items in the ten trunks of the champion.

Interesting Contrast.

It is an interesting contrast to recall the circumstances surrounding the visit of John C. Heenan to Europe when he returned as champion, back in 1860. There was no ballyhooing by paid press agents, no columns in the newspapers, no motion picture cameras to record every movement. Instead, Heenan slipped quietly out of the country because in those days the fighters did not court publicity like they do now.

And when John L. Sullivan went abroad in 1887 his departure was given barely passing mention in the papers.

This was the case also with Jim Jeffries, some fifteen years later although at that time Jeff rose to the dignity of a front page notice on the day of his departure.

The experiences that Heenan, Sullivan and Jeffries had while abroad were varied and in many instances amusing. Perhaps Dempsey will have equally as interesting a journey.

Jeffries Champion at La Savate.

Jeffries always like to tell of certain incidents during his trip abroad in 1902, but the one that caused him the greatest amusement was his contest with the Frenchman La Blah, then known as the champion at la savate. This, by the way, was the French way of fighting. It was a combination of fighting with both hands and feet.

At that period Jeffries was under the management of Wm. A. Brady. The latter had been called back to the United States, however, and big Jeff was put in charge of John S. Parnes, a well known sporting man. The handlers of La Blah proposed a meeting between their man and Jeff, the agreement being that Jeff was to fight according to the Queensbury rule while the Frenchman was to use his own tactics.

Frenchy Landed First Kick.

La Blah weighed only 140 pounds while Jeff was around 200. After it had been explained to Jeff that the Frenchman had the privilege of pinching him on the nose with his fist, or swiping him in the jaw with his feet, if he could, Jeff decided he might as well take a chance, especially as he was promised 55 per cent of the gate receipts. It was certain that the house would total better than $20,000.

When the gladiators came to the center of the ring preliminary to starting hostilities Jeffries assumed his famous crouch while La Blah stood straight as an arrow, on his tip toes, and with arms folded. He looked for all the world like a ballet dancer. Jeff feigned twice with his left and then the Frenchman did a circle of somersaults around the ring, like an a robat. Jeff dropped his hands and began to grin and as he did so the Frenchman made a flying leap, over the head of Jeff, and in passing he kicked him viciously in the face Jeff looked bewildered, while the Frenchman again assumed his taller posture.

"What the hell kind of a business is this," Jeff grunted to his seconds, while the spectators roared with approval at the antil of their champion.

Jeff Wins French Title.

Again Jeff crouched and once more the Frenchman did a series of somersaults, but this time Big Jim was on his guard. When the Frenchman leaped, Jeff side stepped quickly. With scarcely a pause La Blah jumped again, and this time as he was in the air Jeff caught him with a left uppercut to the stomach, and the battle was over. Jeff was proclaimed the champion of France.

Previously to his visit to France, Jeffries had toured England. Efforts were made to match him with the best heavies in England but nothing developed. At that time Jack Scales, was the British title holder Scales, however, refused to meet Jeff in a real battle but he did consent to appear with him in exhibition contests and for this service Scales demanded $20 a week. This figure is mentioned because it shows how the valuations have changed on the services of champions.

Jeff Packed London Theaters.

At any rate, Jeffries and Scales packed the theater nightly during Jeff's visit in London. Following the victory of Jeffries over La Blah, the French promoters asked Jeff if he would agree to box Scales and, of course, a quick acceptance followed. Then Scales was communicated with. He was asked to name his best terms for a 20-round contest with Jeffries and an answer came back promptly that he must have 20 pounds and all expenses. This meant a total of about $250.

There was a great to do in Paris after the announcement that Scales had agreed to fight the American for the championship. When the Englishman arrived in Paris all the papers gave columns of space to him. The public was told that Scales originally had planned to enter the armistry and that he never smoked or drank, and was still deeply religious. This sort of press agenting made a deep impression on the Parisians, and as a consequence they were out in droves the night of the battle.

Britisher Decided to Quit.

Jeff did not force matters in the first two rounds, but in the third he gave Scales a couple of hard jabs on the nose. When the round ended Scales leaned over to Manager Barnes and remarked:

"'Fire, governor, tell Jim 'e's not fighting Sharkey now. Blime me, if he raps me again like that, I'm going to chuck it."

In the next round Jeff began to open up. He landed two or three stiff punches, when suddenly Scales dashed to his corner and, lifting up his hand, said:

"Laidies and gentlemen, 'e's absolutely too bally big for me, and I gives him the championship of Hingland."

That settled the affair. Jeffries had won two championships while in Europe, but he thought so little of these titles he never included the contests in his official record.

Heenan Given Bad Deal.

When John C. Heenan was the American champion, in 1860, he made a tour of England and took part in two contests over there, both of which proved unsatisfactory, but not through any fault of Heenan's. The most famous battle was that with Tom Sayers, champion of England. The latter was only a middleweight, however, while Heenan scaled around 190 pounds. This battle was staged in April, 1860 at Farnborough, England and Heenan had Sayers badly beaten when the followers of Sayers cut the ropes and jumped into the ring. According to the custom of that day the referee called the match a draw. Heenan later got another dose of this kind when he fought Tom King, in 1863, for the partisans of King interfered with the fight when it was apparent that King was losing.

Sullivan Could Not Get Match.

Sullivan was not luck enough to secure a match of any kind while abroad and he had to content himself with giving exhibitions. Jem Smith was the British champion at that time and John L. tried to get him to accept a match but Smith turned a deaf ear to all overtures. One night while Smith was boxing a set up Sullivan met Smith as the latter was about to enter the ring and offered to go on in place of the victim without an hour's training, but Smith declined the challenge.

PIRATE CATCHER SIGNED BY BUCK

Former Pittsburgh Windpad Artist Grabbed by Pilot of Lincoln Club.

Acquisition of an experienced catcher—a backstopper formerly wearing the uniform of the Pittsburgh Pirates—was announced today by Manager Buck Beltzer, latest grabber for Lincoln's State league baseball aggregation. And while Buck was on the job, he also signed another candidate for his pitching staff, thereby edging up to where he is just about ready to declare that the Lincoln club is all set and on the mark in the pennant pursuit.

The new Lincoln backstopper is Fred Conkey of Lacrosse, Wis., while the new pitcher is John Ryan, also of Lacrosse. The Wisconsin battery men invaded the capital city Sunday afternoon for a closeup pow-wow with Manager Buck the conference terminating in an acceptance of salary terms and formal signing of Lincoln contracts.

Looks Like First Stringer.

Although Manager Buck had procured some to terms with a pair of backstoppers, he suggested today that Conkey looks like the goods in addition to stacking up as a formidable [illegible] on the job as first-string catcher.

Conkey has done most of his ball playing in a semi-pro circuit in the Minnesota iron range. While practicing with the Virginia, Minn., team, Conkey was hooked by a scout for the Pittsburgh Pirates. Reporting to Manager Gibson two years ago the Virginia backstopper was retained during the six weeks of the training season, performing so satisfactorily that he stuck with the Pirate clan during the first month of the 1920 pennant race.

Iron Range Loop Suspends.

Conkey wore a Virginia uniform during the seasons of '20 and '21, but the collapse of the Iron Range league this spring induced him to seek a berth in organized baseball circles. Manager Buck considers himself fortunate in acquiring a catcher of Conkey's experience and ability. Pitcher Ryan was with the Aberdeen team of the South Dakota league all of last season.

Conkey and Ryan will linger in Lincoln until next week, when the practice workouts by the Lincoln squad will get under way.

Max Flack Fined For Quitting Cubs

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 17.—Max Flack, outfielder, who left the Chicago Cubs' training camp at Catalina Island and returned to his home here, after being "cleaned" in a practice season loss rejected the club, Flack agreed to stand a fine of fifteen days' pay for his insertion.

DEATH OF ANSON BREAKS ANOTHER LINK WITH PAST

"Pop" . . .on as present-day fans knew him.

The death of Adrian C. "Pop" Anson, old-time White Stockings star, severs another link in the chain that connects modern baseball and the "days of old." He played an important part in the development of the game. His feat of hitting better than .300 for twenty years never has been equaled.

Touching the Bases

First thing you know, Washington will be demanding a congressional investigation. The Philadelphia Athletics are in third place and that seems about as right as rat poison. Furthermore, the Athletics, with Bryan Harris pitching great ball, knocked the Senators off in the first game of the series.

The St. Louis Cardinals are so sorely oppressed by the temporary loss of three regulars that they haven't lost a ball game since the start of the season.

The Cleveland Indians stepped into the pacemaking position in the American league race yesterday in stopping the St. Louis Browns in the opening game of the series. All Cleveland is circle-running over the fact that Walter Mails showed a return of his 1920 form in shutting out the Browns and, incidentally, beating Urban Shocker.

"Bald Dick" Rudolph, hero of the 1914 world's series, assayed a comeback against the Giants yesterday and had them shut out until the seventh inning. Then the weight of years bowed the veteran down and he caved in badly. The Giants winning, 5 to 2.

The Pittsburgh Pirates won their maiden victory in the National league race in taking the Cincinnati Reds over the jumps. However, according to the home folks in Rhineland, anybody can take the Moran entry.

The Detroit Tigers lost their fourth straight yesterday, this time to the White Sox, which club had failed to break into the victory column until the Tigers happened along.

The Phils still roost in third place today, but they are feeling far from well, thank you, just the same. They were very harshly treated by the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday, the home team trifling with Smith and Behan for a matter of seventeen hits, including a homer by Zack Wheat.

Ulysses Winner Over Valparaiso In Opening Game

(Special to The Star.)

ULYSSES, Neb., April 17.—Ulysses high school started the baseball season here last week by defeating Valparaiso high, 9 to 5.

Ulysses high always has a good baseball team. Last year the locals piled up a total of 123 scores, as compared with 16 scored by opponents. Ulysses won thirteen games and lost none.

Clair Nillyer, star halfback on the football squad and one-armed pitcher, struck out fourteen men and allowed but seven hits. Rhoman of Valparaiso also showed good form.

Ulysses high is anxious to book some games. No interscholastic nine is barred by the locals, who are anxious to arrange a strong schedule. Managers should communicate with L. M. Miller, Ulysses, for games.

Jansen High Nine Trims Steele City

(Special to The Star.)

JANSEN, Neb., April 17.—Jansen high school defeated Steele City in a game of baseball here Friday 7 to 1. Heidelk on the mound for Jansen hurled a winning game and, after the first inning, had the Steele City batters completely under his control. The score:

Steele City	1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1
Jansen	1 0 1 2 0 1 0 1 x—7

Batteries—Allen and Greenwood; Heidelk and Zimmerman.

Randolph Fans Organize Team

RANDOLPH, Neb., April 17.—At a meeting of local baseball fans a town team was organized for the summer season. Charles Hall has been elected manager of the club.

Randolph has one of the best baseball diamonds in this section of the state. Games will be scheduled Sundays.

HERO OF DIAMOND IS LAID TO REST

Anson's Passing Removes Man Who Helped Make Baseball National Game.

(Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, April 17.—The body of Adrian C. Anson, hero of thousands of baseball fans and other sport enthusiasts, was buried here today in Lakewood cemetery. Final tribute was paid by his friends who attended funeral services yesterday, at which Kenesaw M. Landis, baseball commissioner, delivered the eulogy.

The body of Mrs. Anson, now buried in Philadelphia, will be brought here and interred at his side.

Anson Heroic Figure.

The death of "Pop" Anson means more to baseball than the loss of one of the greatest stars in the game's history. His going severs another link that has connected the game of today with the game of yesterday. For he was one of the heroic figures around which the traditions and the ideals of the sport were built, when it was growing into the great national game. It was Anson and such men of his time who laid such a firm foundation for the sport that two great scandals and a baseball war have failed to disrupt it.

Consider these achievements of "Pop."

He batted better than .300 for twenty years, the only man in the game's history to perform such a feat. Ty Cobb now is the only man who has a chance to equal this record. Anson turned in those twenty-two years, from 1876-79. The two years he failed to strike that gait were 1891-92. Two of these years he hit over .400. Only three other players have duplicated that feat of hitting past the .400 mark twice. They are Ty Cobb, Ed Delehanty and Jess Burkett. Jess hit .400 three seasons.

Had Edge on McGraw.

"Pop" served twenty-two years with the White Stockings as player and manager. Neither McGraw nor Connie Mack, the veterans of the game today, have equalled that record. McGraw is now starting his twenty-second champaign with the Giants. Connie is serving his twenty-first season with the Athletics.

Anson won five pennants for Chicago. McGraw and Connie have beaten that record, but they are the only ones. None of the old-time leaders surpassed it. Ned Hanlon and Frank Selee won the same number. Owner Comiskey of the White Sox, who is reported about to step out of active control of his club has won five.

As a first baseman, "Pop" ranked as one of the greatest in the game's history. So much for the record books.

Fame and Popularity.

Anson also won added fame and manliness and his strictness as a disciplinarian. His famous "bawlouts" were picturesque, effective, but always just.

His popularity was attested by the fact that after his baseball days were over fans went to the vaudeville theatres for years to see him in his monologue act. They went principally to see "Pop" once more and sort o' visualize him as he used to be on the diamond. And "Pop" put just enough baseball dope and actions into his act to make them glad they came.

Anson numbered presidents, statesmen and many other famous men among his close friends. Commissioner Landis was one of his "pals" and admirers.

Sixteen Track Candidates Win Husker Numerals

Sixteen members of the University of Nebraska track squad have won numerals during the present early season workouts. Varsity letter men are not eligible for the numeral competition. Numeral awards are made for records on the track which place the sprinter or field athlete as good track calibre.

Men who have won numerals are A. Parks, Keith Lloyd, M. F. Gardner, Bryant Nowlin, Ted Smith, Ed Bowman, J. K. Lukens, N. W. Coats, Kenneth Hawkins, L. L. Davidson, E. C. Crites, Harold Hartley, T. Nichols, Herbert Hatch, R. Weir, L. O. Trexler.

Rally in Ninth Inning Wins for Crete High Nine

(Special to The Star.)

MILFORD, Neb., April 17.—A nine-inning rally won for Crete high school in the game against Milford high Saturday. Milford held a four-run lead at the start of the last frame, but Crete scored seven runs in its half of the inning and won the game, 17 to 14.

Anderson pitched the entire route for Milford. He allowed but five hits and struck out twelve men. Errors factored in the Crete rally.

Upland Hi Wins Opening Game of Year from Minden

(Special to The Star.)

UPLAND, Neb., April 17.—Upland high school won its opening game of the season here Friday by defeating Minden, 6 to 3, in a seven-inning game. The visitors could do little with the offerings of Gilgen and Shryock. Captain Shryock did the heavy stick work for the Upland nine, clouting a triple and a home run. Gilgen whiffed nine men.

Score by innings:	R. H.
Minden	0 0 0 0 0 3 0—3 8
Upland	0 1 2 2 1 2 —8 10

BENNY BOUND BY PESKY CONTRACT

Leonard Obligated to Fight in Michigan; Must Pass Up London Offer.

BY DAVIS J. WALSH.

(International News Service.)

NEW YORK, April 17.—You can thank Mr. Floyd Fitzsimmons, lately of three mile at Michigan City next Michigan City, Ind., for the fact that Benny Leonard, the lightweight champion, is not to link arms with Jack Dempsey and Johnny Kilbane and join the merry throng along the Strand in that dear London, At least, not in the immediate future.

Benny has a previous engagement with Mr. Fitzsimmons to fight one o fthree men at Michigan City next July 4. Otherwise he might show unseemly haste in accepting an offer of $15,000 to box Ernie Rice in London. The offer is advanced by Louis Headley, a responsible promoter, which makes that end of it quite all right, and Rice is a very fair sort o' third-rater, it seems altogether.

Giving the proposition the left to right, it seems altogether possible that Leonard will be disposed to keep the worthy Mr. Headley in mind for future reference.

Change in Basket Rules.

The basketball rules committee is responsible for a lot of constructive legislation in taking some of the punch out of the foul goal a somewhat amusing feature of an otherwise commendable game. The doubling of the penalty for personal fouls committed within fifteen feet of the basket means that players will hesitate before they deliberately foul a man to prevent him from scoring a field goal. The latter is the lifeblood of basketball, as the business of scoring point after point from the foul line is about as interesting as a bill of lading.

Kerr's Desertion Hurts Sox.

Without knowing who has the right of the matter, club owner or player, we will venture that the passing of Dick Kerr to the outlaws is not only deplorable but the poorest sort of business. Kerr has automatically suspended himself for a period of not less than a year, which means that if he applied for reinstatement now he would not be allowed to pitch for the White Sox until next April.

If he goes through with the outlaw proposition this season he will not be eligible to return until two years from this date.

It may now occur to Comiskey that it would have been cheaper to deal more leniently with the great little save Kerr's salary for two years and at the same time lose his services, which are worth infinitely more than mere dollars and cents.

Alliance Legion To Stage Bout End of the Week

(Special to The Star.)

ALLIANCE, Neb., April 17.—Interest of Alliance sport fans is keen in the American Legion boxing show to be held at the roof garden stadium, April 21, when "Young" Billie Papke of Denver and Joe "Wop" Flynn of Detroit-Ursh are scheduled to meet in a ten-round bout. Papke gained many ardent supporters here last month when he knocked out "Farmer" Mel Wyland of Alliance in the first round of their scheduled six-round bout and efforts were immediately launched to match him with a worthy opponent for a return date. In the "Wop," fight fans believe the Denver mauler will meet a good adversary. Articles have been signed and the fighters will arrive three days before the bout. In the semi windup, "Kid" Florine of Alliance will meet "Rattling" Dick Jaegers of Omaha in a six-round go and in the preliminary Lloyd Dotson of Alliance will go four rounds with "Farmer" Mel Wyland.

West Lincoln Drubs Emerald

West Lincoln baseball pastimers drubbed Emerald in a Sunday game, 17 to 5.

Speidell, on the mound for Emerald, pitched effectively, but had poor support. Speidell poled two triples and a home run, scoring four of Emerald's five runs. Batteries—Emerald—Speidell and Roeder; West Lincoln—Roy and Williams.

Fairbury Defeats Bruning Ball Club In Sunday Contest

(Special to The Star.)

FAIRBURY, Neb., April 17.—The Fairbury independent baseball team defeated Bruning Sunday at Fairbury in the first game of the season by a score of 4 to 2. Batteries—Bledsoe and Neitzel; Hawks, Domeier and Schulte.

Kelly and Ruth Wallop Homers

NEW YORK, April 17.—George E. Kelly, National league home run champion of 1921, tallied his first 1922 circuit drive in the Giants-Braves game yesterday at the Polo Grounds.

Babe Ruth, the exiled Yankee, rejoined his team for a day at Baltimore and connected for a homer in an exhibition game against the Orioles, the Yankees winning, 9 to 1.

LONDON BIDS FOR GLOVE CARNIVAL

Promoter Plans to Pit Best of the Europeans Against Champion Kilbane.

LONDON, April 17.—Plans to match Johnny Kilbane, world's featherweight champion, with the winner of an elimination tournament among European contenders are being made by Major Arnold Wilson, leading British fight promoter.

Wilson has matched Arthur Wyns, the European champion, with Mark McAdam, the Scot, to meet the night of the Carpentier-Lewis bout and he wants to match the winner with Eugene Criqui, the French champion for a European title bout.

Before leaving London, Kilbane said he would fight the recognized champion of Europe if his terms could be met.

Johnny's Demands Sky High.

PARIS, April 17.—Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, world's champion featherweight pugilist, announced last night to a group of French sportsmen that he was willing to meet Eugene Cirqui, French featherweight champion any time. Their enthusiasm over the proposed meeting vanished, however, when Kilbane reminded the sportsmen that boxing was his profession and that he had received for his last fight the equivalent of 700,000 francs, an amount nearly double the total gate receipts of the biggest recent French fight.

Cambridge High Wins Invitation Meet at Bartley

(Special to The Star.)

CAMBRIDGE, Neb., April 17.—Cambridge high school won an invitation track meet at Bartley last week. The Cambridge tracksters scored 71 1-2 points. Bartley scored 45 points. Farnam counted 17 points and Danbury scored 8 1-2. The results follows:

CARDINALS STICK AT TOP OF LADDER

Branch Rickey's Wallopers Grab Victory in Eighth Inning Rally.

(Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 17.—Branch Rickey's rampaging Cardinals took a tighter grip on first position by defeating the Chicago Cubs, 3 to 2, Sunday afternoon. The Cardinals, coming from behind in the eighth, pushed over the winning run. Score by innings: R. H. E.

St. Louis	0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 2 *—3 8 1

Batteries—Jones and O'Farrell, Sherdel and Ainsmith.

Rixey Weakens; Pirates Win.

CINCINNATI, O., April 17.—Pittsburgh won from Cincinnati Sunday, 4 to 2. Rixey was found for four hits in the seventh sending in two runs and practically deciding the game. Score by innings:

	R. H. E.
Pittsburgh	1 0 0 0 1 0 2 0 0—4 12 2
Cincinnati	0 1 1 1 0 0 0 0 0—3 9 4

Batteries—Cooper and Gooch, Rixey, Couch and Hargrave.

Kelly's Clouting Beats Braves.

NEW YORK, April 17.—George Kelly's batting defeated Pitcher Dick Rudolph Sunday after he had hurled six shutout innings. It was Rudolph's first start in two years and the Giants won, 5 to 2. Score by innings:

	R. H. E.
Boston	0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1—2 6 1
New York	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3 2 *—5 11 0

Batteries—Rudolph and Gowdy, Smith and Nehf.

Dodgers Drub Phillies.

BROOKLYN, April 17.—Walter Ruether pitched and batted Brooklyn to a 10 to 2 victory over Philadelphia Sunday. Wheat made a sensational one-handed catch, robbing King of a home run. Catcher Doherty of Brooklyn had a finger broken in the first inning and was forced to retire. Score by innings: R. H. E.

Philadelphia	0 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 0—2 8 0
Brooklyn	0 0 0 0 2 2 3 3 *—10 17 1

Batteries—Smith, Behan and Henline, Ruether and Deberry, Taylor.

BROWNS SHUT OUT BY SPEAKER TEAM

St. Louis Club Pulled From Top Position in Ban Johnson League.

(Associated Press.)

CLEVELAND, O., April 17.—The Cleveland Indians knocked St. Louis out of a tie for first place Sunday when they defeated the Browns, 3 to 1, in a pitchers' battle between Mails and Shocker. The Cleveland southpaw held St. Louis to six scattered hits and allowed but two Browns to reach third. Score by innings:

	R. H. E.
St. Louis	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 5 0
Cleveland	0 0 0 1 0 1 0 1 *—3 8 0

Batteries—Shocker and Severeid, Mails and Nunamaker.

Athletics Wallop Senators.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The Philadelphia Athletics won their first game of the season with the Senators, 5 to 1, Sunday, largely through the pitching of Bryan Harris, coupled with six errors by the local club. Harris fanned eight of the Griffmen. Score by innings: R. H. E.

Philadelphia	0 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 0 3—5 6 1
Washington	0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 7 6

Batteries—Harris and Perkins; Gleason and Gharrity.

Sox Break Into Win Column.

CHICAGO, April 17.—The Chicago White Sox won their first game of the season by defeating Detroit Sunday, 7 to 6 in ten innings. The Sox played an uphill battle and took the lead in the seventh, only to have Detroit stage a rally in the ninth and tie the count. McClellan's double and singles by Collins and Strunk sent home the final run in the tenth. Score by innings: R. H. E.

Detroit	1 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 3 0—6 12 0
Chicago	0 1 0 0 2 0 3 0 0 1—7 14 3

Sox Star Out of Game This Year

CHICAGO, April 17.—Dick Kerr, former White Sox pitcher, today is definitely out of the folds of organized baseball. Following a conference with Manager Gleason of the Sox at which it is understood Kerr's salary demands were again refused, the little southpaw signed a contract to play with the Chicagos of the Midwest league, a local semi-pro circuit.

Kerr made his first appearance as a semi-pro yesterday when he pitched seven innings against the Firemen. Kerr's appearance with the semi-pros automatically bars him from the big leagues this year.

NINE HOMERS IN GAME AT TULSA

Also Ten Two-Baggers in Slugfest; Omaha Wins by 14-10 Score.

TULSA, Okla., April 17.—Omaha defeated Tulsa here in a heavy slugfest in which both teams took an active part. Thompson and Davis of Tulsa hit two homers each, while Griffin, Grantham, and Wilder of Omaha and Stuart and Crosby of Tulsa, turned the trick once. The teams made ten two-base hits. The score: R. H. E.

LIFE AND CHARACTER READING

The governing sign of ... is Aries. Children born on this date are very sensitive and ... be ruled with gentleness ... Harshness only makes them sullen and reserved.

The natural ... of these children should be recognized and very carefully ... Great discretion is necessary in the use of praise or comparison. They require the stimulus of appreciation, but it should not be given by comparison with others to the disadvantage of the latter.

Aries men and women ... practice and learn the great ... of science. Any profession will restrain the action of tongue and the determination to govern everybody and everything will be found wholesome and beneficial.

Contractors and builders, as well as masons and bricklayers, will do well by watching The Star Want Ads for new work and bona fide positions this week and next.

Native Son Sets Fast Pace; Wins Gasoline Battle

(Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 17.—Harry Hartz, a young San Francisco driver, won the Golden Gate motor derby at the San Carlos speedway Sunday. His time for the 150 miles was one hour, twenty-one minutes and fifty-eight and four-fifths seconds.

Jimmy Murphy, winner of the Grand Prix in Paris last year, was second, and Roscoe Sarles, third. Art Klein was fourth and Joe Thomas, fifth.

Hartz, by winning the race, won a prize of $5,000 and 300 points toward the national speed championship.

Jerry Wonderlich finished sixth and Frank Elliott seventh. Eighth and last place went to Pietro de Paolo, Italian driver, who was forced by engine trouble to stop five times at his pit.

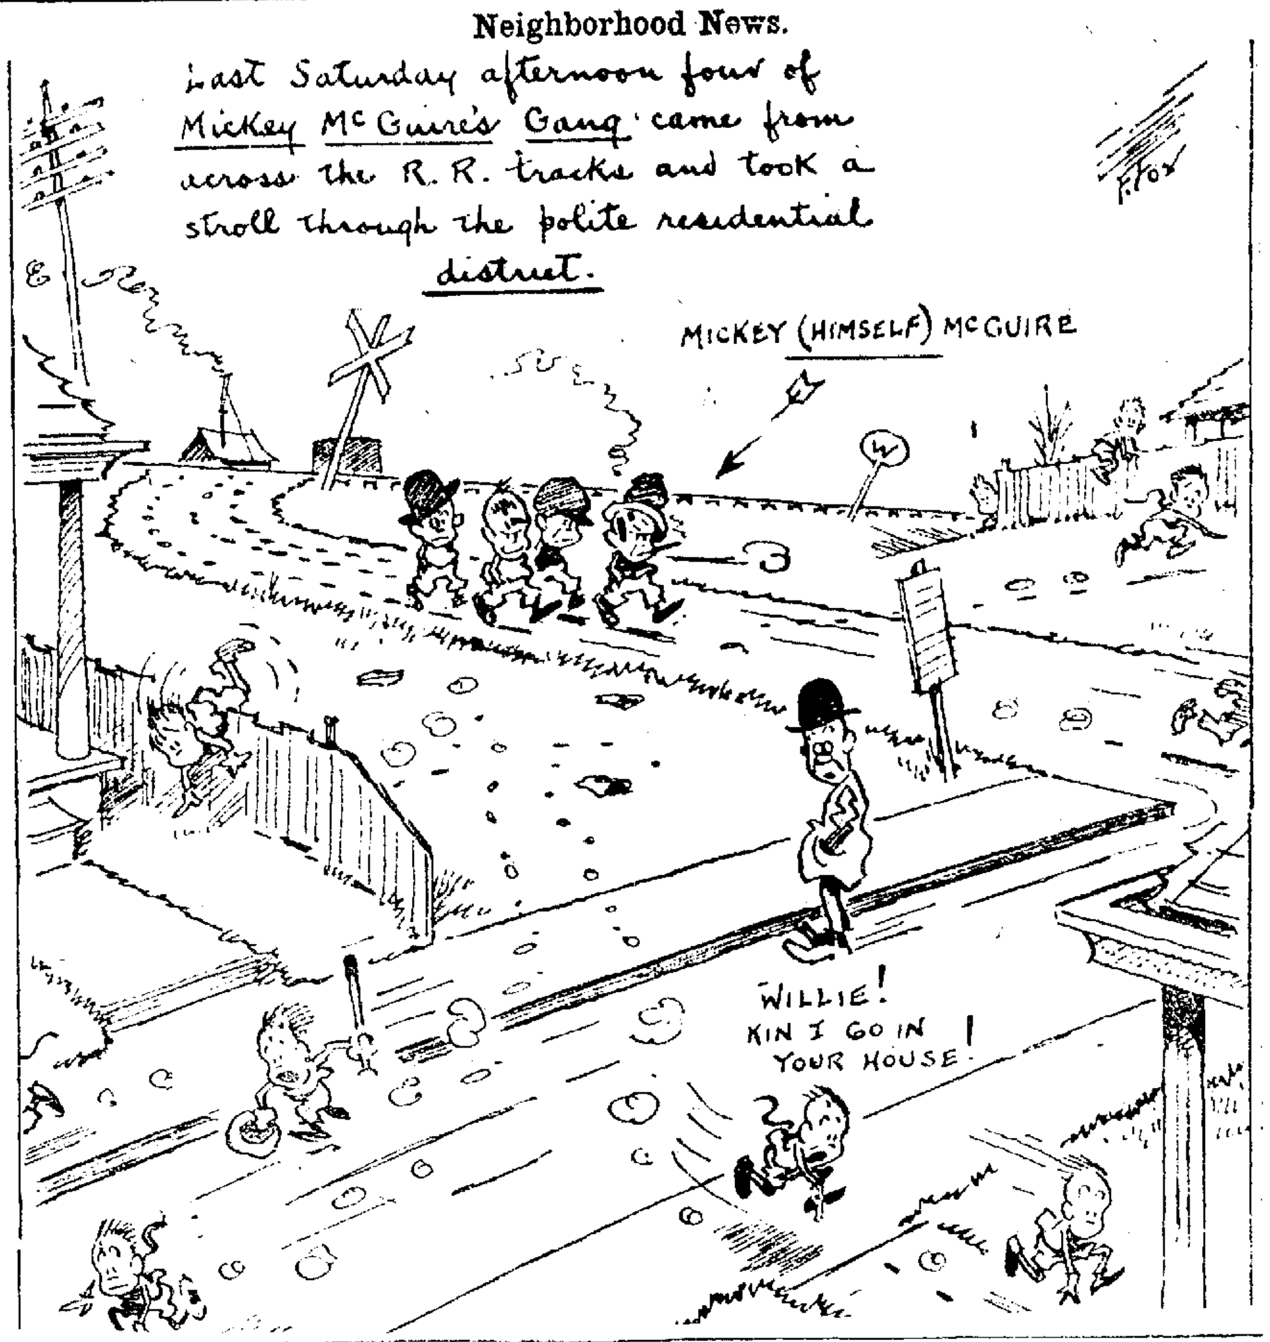

Hartz Always In Front.

Hartz took the lead at the start and remained in first place the entire distance. For the first fifty laps the winner, Murphy and Elliott were only a few yards apart, but Elliott dropped back when he had engine trouble and Hartz gradually crawled ahead of Murphy, lapping him on the seventy-eighth round. Murphy, although lapped, crawled ahead of Hartz on the 102d lap, but could not overcome the big lead.

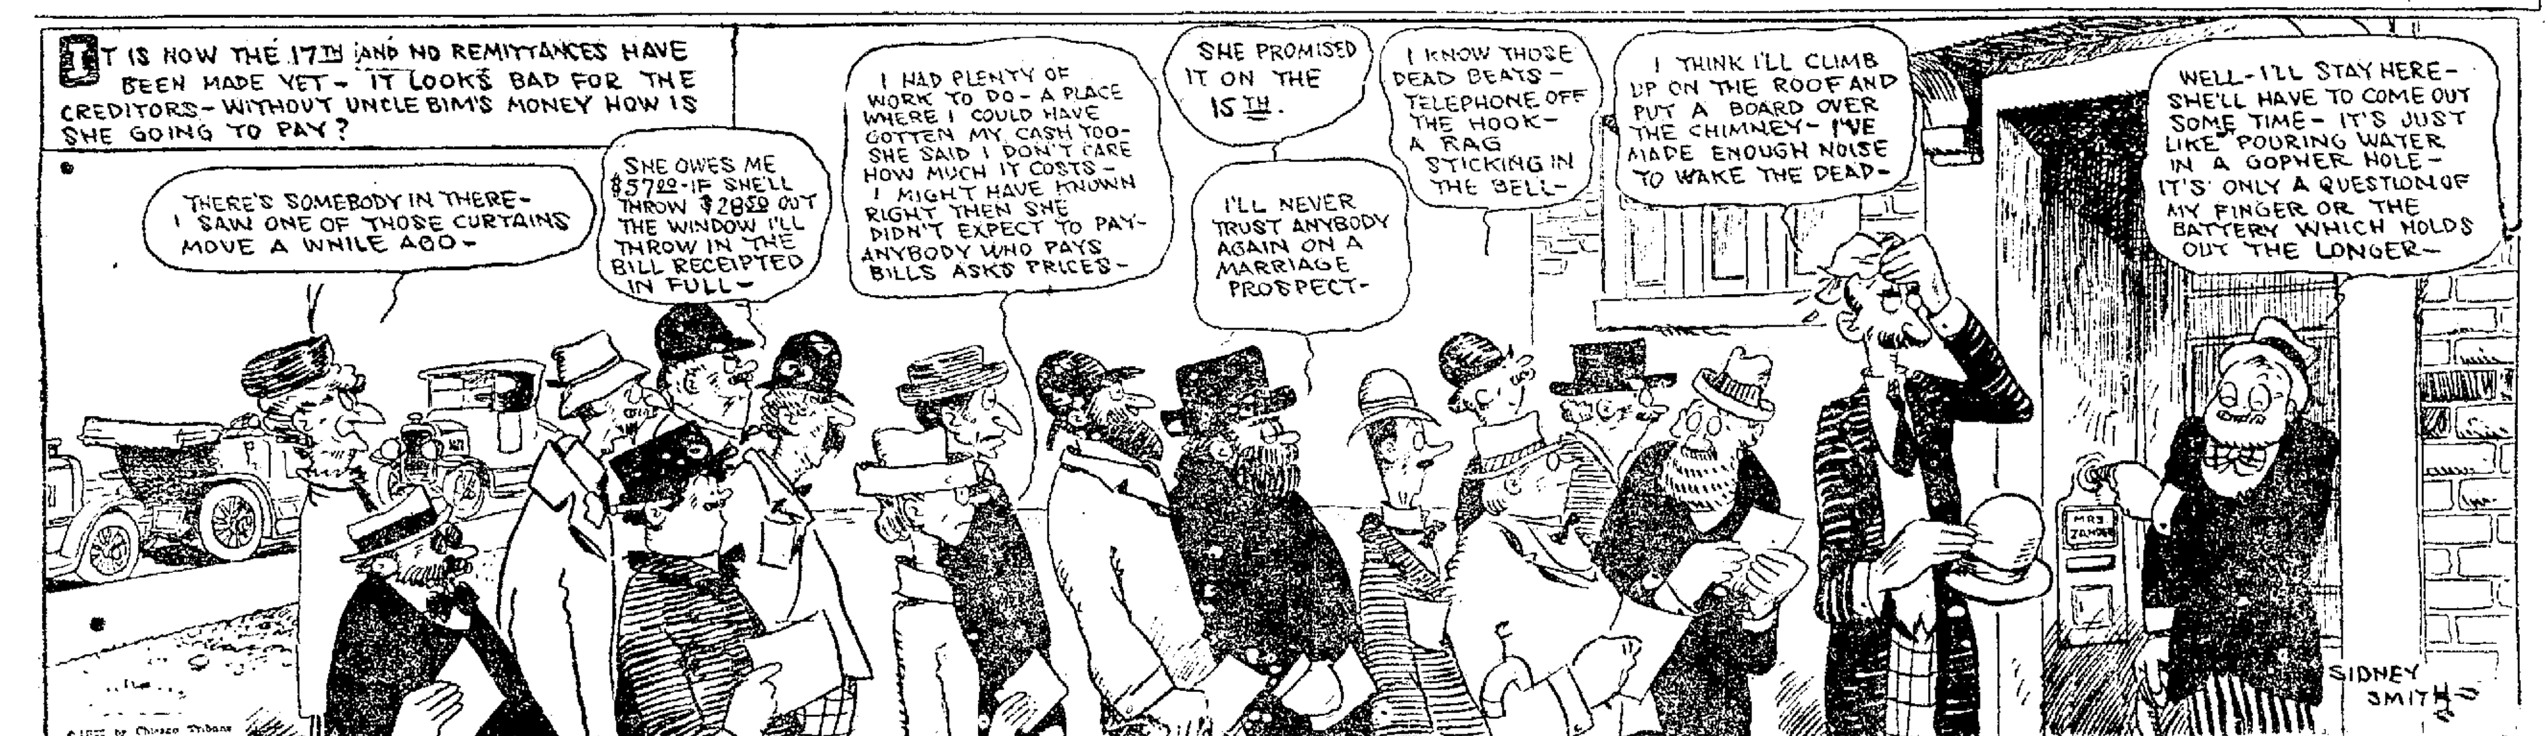

The race was the first big event won by Hartz, who formerly rode as a mechanic for Eddie Hearne, well known driver. Hartz was a champion juvenile driver for years. He made an average speed of 111.2 miles an hour.

James J. Corbett, formerly world's heavyweight boxing champion boxing, was referee. Officials estimated the crowd at 35,000.

Tommy Milton, national champion for 1921, did not enter the race. He was not disqualified. Failure to complete an agreement with the owner of his car was said to be the reason Milton did not enter.

MINERVA'S MAIL
Take Your Troubles to Minerva

Issues a Warning.

Dear Minerva: I would like to say just a few words of advice to poor Hen-Pecked. You may think you are in the frying pan now, but when your wife tells you to "go and get a job on Ardent Suffragett's farm" don't heed her. It would be out of the frying pan into the fire. Man alive, the farm is full of terrors for the city-bred. Even the cows are militant and uncivilized and go on the rampage occasionally. Wasn't that a joke the way my old Boss chased down O street the other day? But can anything good come out of Pumpkinville? If someone had only known it they could have subdued that poor old frightened bossy jist by waving a linen colored, "Votes for Women" pennant in front of her, and inviting her to occupy a soap box on a prominent corner.

Your wife is surely an absent-minded woman, anyhow, tothink of exposing you to the dangers of the farm. 'Isn't it a fact that every few weeks one sees an account of a harmless hired hand and trusted wife making a silent get-away while the trusting husband sleeps peacefully on, only to awaken with a befuddled brain trying to comprehend the strange ways of primitive people?" Seems to me a certain authority on matters conventional once told us so in these columns. And doesn't Hank, the hired man, frequently say, "Mary, as soon as you get the dishes washed lets take a stroll down the lane."

I assure you I haven't "made a silent get-away" with more than three of our hired men, but how does your wife know that you won't be the fourth?

As for Jack, don't do anything rash. I'll tell the world we need a few perfumed apostles to enlighten people as to the absolute necessity of perfumes. Next time some big perfume establishment in Los Angeles sends out a sales agent like Jack, I'm going to extend him a special invitation to visit Pumpkinville and exhibit his sweet, even if I have to send for big Packard and a chauffeur to take livery as an inducement to get him to come. When he once gets within our domain I shall insist on being shown the choicest Oriental perfumes to be used exclusively for the feet, and I will proceed to introduce him to our hired man. You must know, Henpecked, I've had some awful trials with hired men. We had one young chap, who was with us a whole month, and in all time he never once took a bath or washed his feet. As soon as he came indoors the room became as fragrant as a slaughter pen. At last our patience wore out and hubby said, "See here young man, the wife says you've got to clean up or get out."

Franz grambled a good deal, but he finally took an old wooden pail and washed his feet, but it made him sick. He said washing his feet had given him the rheumatism and the next day he packed up and went back to the city. He said he was thankful he was "socially superior to savages" and his "education demanded adherence to a higher social requisition."

If you don't want to bathe your feet in wooden pails, Henpecked, stay away from the farm. Most people on the farm suffer with rheumatism.

Some how, in spite of the fact that I have flaming red hair and a squint and a "long sun-burned neck" I've proven a veritable Cleopatra to three hired men. Tell your wife she'd better reconsider the matter. If you ever see a red haired woman of about 250 lbs going down O street with six freckle-faced, red headed kids dragging at her heels and all yelling, "Ma I want some candy," and a meek, little black-haired, henpecked man trotting along at her side, you may be absolutely certain you are gazing directly at

ARDENT SUFFRAGETTE.

Three Years to Decide.

Dear Minerva: Three years ago a young man proposed to me. I told him how I felt at that time that marriage was to remain in my mind to even consider and that he was to me only a friend. He was very much broken up over my refusal which it seemed surprised him, and told me if I ever changed my mind not to hesitate to let him know. Now Minerva in the three years which have elapsed since that time I have learned many things, and one is that this man's love was not a thing to be lightly thrown away and I do in truth love him. Now Minerva do you think it would be bold of me to tell him how I feel? I still see him occasionally though not frequently as in the past.

ORA.

A. If you have reason to believe the young man meant what he said three years ago and is of the same opinion still take him at his word. You know his personality and should know if he is the serious sort of man who would mean that he really wanted you to tell him of it if you ever decided to accept his proposal. It would be a better plan if you could make a special and open effort to be extra nice to him, and thus afford him an opportunity and an invitation to repeat his proposal. A man could have a change of heart in three years very easily and it might prove embarrassing for you to speak up with a "yes" after so much time had elapsed. However you known your man and should have some idea as to his present state of mind.

Questions Answered Briefly.

Gladys: To avoid making a ring or spots on the material when cleaning in gasoline dip the entire garment.

Young Mother: Tradition has it that the baby girl wears blue and the baby boy wears pink. However it is not necessary to adopt these baby colors. Most mothers in fact put blue on the fair blue-eyed baby regardless of sex, and pink on the brunette baby.

Lulu: The "Miller Boy" would be an appropriate game all right to play at your old-fashioned party. You say your grandmother remembers the tune but not the words and not exactly how it is played. I am told by another grandmother that this is the way it is played.

As many couples as wish can play. There must be one extra boy who is the Miller boy. He stands within a circle of boys and girls, the girls forming the inside of the circle and the boys directly back of them. They form in couples and march around the circle singing:

Happy is the miller boy,
Who lives by the mill,
The wheel turns around
Of its own free will,
One hand in the hopper
And the other in the sack,
Ladies step forward
And gents fall back.

This change of reverse steps gives the miller boy a chance to seize a partner in the confusion and the one left out becomes the new miller boy.

Puzzled. A woman's name should not appear on a visiting card without either Mrs. or Miss prefixed. The only exceptions to this rule are women who have graduated in theology or medicine and wish to prefix Rev. or Dr. to their names.

SCOTTISH RITE EASTER SERVICES

Gregory Makes Plea for More Practical Use of Good Literature.

The Easter-time service that began Thursday night at the Scottish Rite temple, with extinguishing the lights, was completed Sunday afternoon when the lights were reignited.

A plea for sounder thinking and more practical use of good literature was made in the address of the ceremony by Louis A. Gregory, who said in part:

"There never was a time when reading was so great an influence upon the thought of the average man as it is here and now, nor a time when greater care was needed in the choice of reading matter. The most popular printed matter, the newspapers, are commonly held up as horrible examples of poor literature and most of the them contain little inspiration for lofty thinking. Many current publications are issued with no intention of supplying food for serious thought but are prepared merely as literary chewing gum. They are sweetened and flavored to give a momentary pleasant taste. If chewed for substance they leave only a bad taste in the mouth.

"To combat and counteract the superficiality sensationalism, perversion, unrest, and crime fostered by unprincipled and irresponsible writers, may well be a mission of each Knight of the Rose Cross Truly to qualify for such service the Knight must constantly assimilate through study, meditation, and practice, the truths taught and proved by the recognized benefactors of mankind. Within the authoritative literature of the order may be found unlimited material for the most inspiring and exalting study. Chief among these authorities, and most often quoted, is our English Bible.

"Masonry has little concern with arguments about historical data, and still less with sectarian religious views, but it joins hands with all high-minded students in reverence for and devotion to the philosophical, moral, and spiritual truth contained in all the sacred writings. From such sources, it would supply its votaries with spiritual food for daily labor and spiritual light for the journey in the dark.

"In improving our opportunities, the lessons of Scottish Free Masonry are most valuable, and the counsel and example of earth's truly great ones are lights for us. These ceremonies and authorities are guides and aids only so far as we look to them, keep them in thought. To read, or recall, and dwell upon some exalting truth is food and preparation of our thought for daily work, surely as important as to feed and clothe the body.

Saunders Stock Breeders Elect Set of Officers

WAHOO, Neb., April 17.—At the annual meeting of the Saunders County Live Stock Breeders' association, held at the office of the farm bureau last Friday, officers for the ensuing year were elected, about thirty members of the association being present. Fifty dollars was made available for boys' and girls' pig club prizes and the 'round worm' film sent out by the department of agriculture was shown and explained by Dr. A. H. Francis of the federal bureau of animal industry.

Much interest was shown by the breeders in this film, which demonstrates a system of controlling the worms. For an hour after it had been shown Dr. Francis was kept busy answering questions. It has been seen at Memphis, Cedar Bluffs and Prague, the total attendance being 350. It will be seen in Lancaster county this week.

Officers elected were: President, R. C. Johnson, Mead; vice president, Joe Molino, Ceresco, secretary, Walter F. Roberts, Wahoo; treasurer Harry Woodworth, Wahoo; directors, C. M. Shires Mead, O. E. Henning, Mead; Charles Tanner, Memphis; Rix Lampert, Wahoo; J. H. Holtorf, Jr., Cedar Bluffs.

Big Shallenberger Barn is Destroyed

(Special to The Star.)

ALMA, Neb., April 17.—The large barn belonging to A. C. Shallenberger, former governor, and used by him for housing his purebred Shorthorn cattle, was completely destroyed by fire Saturday, the estimated loss being $10,000. The origin of the blaze is unknown. A very high wind was raging at the time and this made it impossible to save any part of the structure, though all of the cattle were taken out.

JUNIOR BAND APPEARS.

(Special to The Star.)

ALMA, Neb., April 17.—The Alma junior band made its first appearance on the streets Saturday, rendering several selections which called for the most favorable comment upon the part of the large crowd which had turned out to hear the concert. The progress which has been made by the youthful musicians called forth many expressions of pleased surprise from those who heard them.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost every one knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago, the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.—Advertisement

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Curtis of Shubert, Richardson county, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Friday, April 7. A family dinner at noon was followed by a reception for friends and relatives in the afternoon. The six children present were Mrs. Ed C. Adler of Haddam, Kas.; Mrs. Elmer Marts and Mrs. Marion Marts of Stella; Dayton and Cecil Curtis of Shubert, and Mrs. Clyde Teare of Atkinson, Neb. One daughter, Mrs. Harvey Young of Ziegler, Colo., was ill with influenza and unable to be present.

Mr. Curtis is 75 years old and Mrs. Curtis is 68. They were married in Indiana and have lived in this community since 1878. Mr. Curtis, who is a retired farmer, is in the hardware and implement business with his sons at Shubert. Virginia Davis of Haddam, Kas., 4 years old, the only great-graadchild, was at the golden wedding celebration.

Makes Effort to Unite Republicans On Tariff Bill

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Administration leaders today were seeking to cement the differences which have split the republican majority on the new tariff bill to be taken up Thursday.

It was their purpose to thresh out these differences at the majority conference called for tomorrow and to at least work out a program of speedy action on the bill which will prevent it from being dragged throughout the summer.

Despite the uncertainty of the situation and a growing feeling on the republican side that the plan of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and other republican whips to drive the measure through the senate by June of July, may encounter unforseen obstacles, administration spokesmen declared that the bill must be passed at this session.

Fix May Third As Trial Date

OKMULGEE, Okla., April 17.—Arraignment of Governor J. B. A. Robertson of Oklahoma and twelve other men indicted after a grand jury investigation into state banking affairs in this county, was set for May third by Judge Mark L. Bozarth in district court here today. The proceedings originally had been scheduled for today but early last week Judge Bozarth granted the request of defense attorneys for a postponement.

White Russians Leave for Genoa

HELSINGFORS, April 17.—A delegation representing the "White Russian" government has departed for Genoa, seeking recognition from the allied powers.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Child's Hair With.

If you want to keep your child's hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and is very harmful. Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any drug store. It's very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—Advertisement

2,000 D. A. R. at Capital Conclave

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The recording of accredited delegates and alternates had reached above 3,000 today when the thirty-first continental congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution convened in continental hall, thereby assuring, general officers said, the largest meeting in the history of the society.

The first session of the congress was given over largely to the formalities of the opening with the exception of the annual address of Mrs. George Maynard Minor, president general.

Stratton to Have Nine Hole Course

(Special to The Star.)

STRATTON, Neb., April 17.—A nine hole golf course is being laid out for the Stratton Golf club, which was organized last Friday evening. The work is under the supervision of Mr. Holbrook, who recently laid out the eighteen hole course for the McCook club. This is a new game in Stratton, but there are many enthusiasts, many of whom have had experience, so the success of the club seems assured.

Pitched Battle in Fashionable Quarter

ROME, April 17.—A pitched battle between Fascisti, or extreme nationalists and communists occurred yesterday in the fashionable Via Po quarter, where the many tourist hotels are crowded with Americans.

Sniping continued for sometime before police drove away the communists.

Declares Naked Men Are Branded By the Soviets

BERLIN, April 17.—Fritz Nolde, a German business man, recently released from Butrika prison, in Moscow and returned to Berlin, declares that there has been no modification of treatment of prisoners there since the Moscow government announced the dread cheka and its methods were things of the past.

Nolde said, from his cell window looking on the prison courtyard he saw naked men branded with hot irons and heard the cries of the victims.

Several Hungarian officers released with Nolde bore out his assertions.

Up-To-Date Cooking Hints For Every Housewife

How to "lighten" bread flour to use for cakes, pastry, etc.

It is not necessary to purchase both a bread and a pastry flour. By using quarter cup of Kingsford's Corn Starch to three-quarter cup of any good flour the percentage of gluten is decreased and the starch content increased so that home prepared flour will make a lighter and finer grained cake.

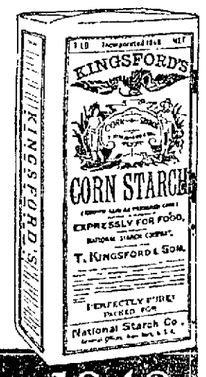

If your recipe calls for 4 eggs to 1 quart of milk use 3 eggs, and for the egg omitted use half tablespoonful of Kingsford's Corn Starch.

For smoother, glossier gravies and sauces use a dessert spoonful of Kingsford's Corn Starch, instead of a tablespoonful of wheat flour. For lighter, flakier biscuits, pie crusts and muffins, make your pastry flour with one-fourth cup of Kingsford's to three-fourths cup wheat flour.

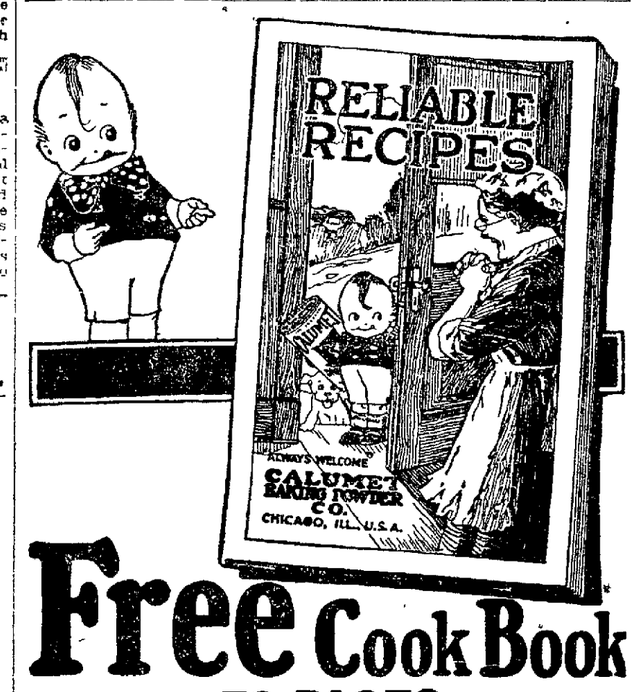

A little Kingsford's Corn Starch dusted on top of cakes before icing prevents the frosting from running off.

A quarter teaspoonful of Kingsford's put into each of your salt-shakers will keep the salt from caking.

FREE: Ask your grocer or write Corn Products Sales Co., 8th and Jackson St., Omaha, Neb., for beautiful folder of the new Kingsford Corn Starch recipes.
